UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 6.—Orto have allied themselves with com-

the country, today partially wrecked the interior of the Lafayette junior high school here.

So destructive was the work of the perpetrators of the outrage that stu-

teachers and school sessions postponed until the damage could be repaired.

Scene of Disorder
The interior of the institution presents a scene of wild disorder to police who were called by school authori-been torn from their hinges, dishes and utensils in the school cafeteria had been shattered and thrown about in confusion, while papers and records in the school office were

NEW GANGLAND WAR LOOMING IN CHICAGO

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, March 6.—A new gang-land war loomed today in the beer running territory "back o' the yards" with the finding of the bodies of John "Dingbat" Obera, politician, beer baron and gangster, lieutenant of "Big Joe" Salts, and his bodyguard, Sammy "Texas" Malaga.

Obera's body was found in his expensive automobile on the far outskirts of the city, his head apparently half chopped off with an ax. No bullet wound was found in his body. The body of Malaga was found half-submerged in a roadside ditch a few feet from the car, bullets through his head and heart.

Police saw in the killings the culmination of a boast by Frank McErlane, rival gang leader, that when he left a hospital where three gunmen tried to kill him, "there would be plenty of guys taken for a ride."

MUNICH, Germany, March 6.—Ad-

German war-time naval leader died here today.

The admiral died at 2:30 o'clock this morning. Death was attributed to paralysis of the heart.

The aged leader's end came in a sanitarium at Ebenhausen, just outside this city, where he had been staying for a short time because of the condition of his heart.

He recently suffered an attack of bronchitis from which he temporarily recovered but the illness left him with a chronic heart condition which necessitated his going to the sanitarium.

The famous German leader was 80 years old. He was a brilliant states-

Hope Fades For Substantial Cut In World Navies

FRENCH STATESMEN ARE BACK AGAIN

Unless France Accepts Mc-Donald-Hoover Accord, Parley Doomed To Failure

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

WASHINGTON, March 6.—
Almost the last flickering hope that the London naval conference can accomplish any real or substantial reduction in the world's actual fighting fleets faded out here today upon receipt of Secretary of State Stimson's announcement in London concerning the prospects of the gathering.

The burden of Secretary Stimson's statement was that if France can be persuaded—and it is a big if—to go along with the Anglo-American agreement framed by President Hoover and Premier MacDonald on the banks of the Rapin last October, it will be possible to reduce the gross tonnage of the American fleet by some 200,000 tons.

On the face of this announcement, it appears to refer to the actual fighting fleet.

Obsolete Tonnage
But on analysis, it is disclosed that the tonnage to be reduced is really obsolete and decommissioned craft, either destined for the junk-heap by the ravages of time, or now tied up and rusting at docks. Thus while the tonnage would be scrapped, the actual fighting fleet is not affected.

The American navy now has rusting away at various docks on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts more than 100,000 tons of war-built destroyers.
The navy hasn't the men to man them, nor the money to operate them.
The unofficial figures which accompanied the Stimson announcement noted, incidentally, a reduction of some 150,000 tons in this class of vessels.

Slated For Junk Pile
These destroyers are slated for the junk-pile irrespective of whether the London conference succeeds or fails.

The balance of the reduction analyzed from Stimson's announcement would come through the scrapping of three battleships, the Wyoming, Utah, and Florida when they reach the retirement age next year. This would reduce the American battleship fleet to fifteen vessels, which is the figure informally agreed upon by the American and British experts for both fleets.

The United States also has some 20,000 tons of obsolete submarines ready for the scrap-pile. Some of these have already been listed for sale as junk.

Bulge In Budget
To offset these reductions, however, the United States is faced with the necessity of completing the 15-cruiser program, and authorizing still

Edward Fink, 215 Garfield avenue, operators of street cars on the New Castle lines, was removed to the James N. Memorial hospital Wednesday, where an X-ray picture showed that his right hip had been fractured

Mr. Fink was painting a ceiling in his home and was working from a trestle about three feet high, when one of the supports gave away and he was precipitated to the floor.

Although suffering considerable pain at the time, it was thought the injury was of only a slight character but as the pain continued, it was decided to remove him to the hospital where the full extent of the injury was determined. He will be unable to

O'Donovan In Hospital Here

Westminster Star Is Brought To Jameson Memorial For Treatment

Glenn "Babe" O'Donovan, star basketball player and captain of the Westminster College floor team, is in the Jameson Memorial hospital today with a badly swollen right leg.

The doctor termed the case as a dislocated internal lunar cartilage.
The leg is being treated with ice packs to reduce the swelling and will later be placed in a cast. O'Donovan will be in the hospital for the next few days.

The injury to the Titan floor star came in the Grove City game recently played at New Wilmington, when he crashed with "Red" Ryan of the Crimson team in a scramble for the ball. O'Donovan was carried out of the Grove City game and it was believed that his collegiate career was over, but he gamely refused to consider himself unfit for basketball and was a big factor in the splendid work of the Titans against Duquesne University on Tuesday night, although he again suffered injury to his knee and had to be removed from the game.

O'Donovan was brought to New Castle by Graduate Manager McDonald yesterday for treatment and at a consultation by doctors it was deemed necessary to remove him to the hospital for proper treatment.

things you needn't care. But when you know what he has inside, and

Expecting Word From Yohe Soon

Anticipate Some Further Action In P. & L. E. Station Project Soon

Although Mayor William Gillespie has not yet received any information from the P. & L. E. railroad relative to the proposed new station for West Washington street, he believes that the matter is giving the railroad executive said he favored a new station and said he would take the proposition up with the Erie railroad which owns the line.

Yohe conferred with city officials here recently. Maps and surveys made years previous were studied and before he left the conference room the railroad executive said he favored a new station and said he would take the proposition up with the Erie railroad which owns the line.

The conference was filled with optimism and though no report has been received since Mr. Yohe left here it is but natural, according to city officials to presume that such a big problem would require time and study on the part of the P. & L. E. and Erie railroad officials.

The mayor anticipates that Yohe will soon have something to make known. The city has fully satisfied Yohe that the city would be willing to do anything possible in order to secure a new station in West Washington street.

Consequently, while it may be possible to junk some 20,000 tons of dead and obsolete craft, actually the cost of new cruiser construction must cause an additional bulge in the naval budget. And even this reduction is only possible, as Stimson pointed out, if "other powers," meaning France, will agree to go along on the basis of the Anglo-American agreement.

VARE WILL BACK SECRETARY DAVIS FOR SENATORSHIP

things political, recall, does not normally use a "mouthpiece." No definite announcement has come from him withdrawing his name entirely from the contest, nor has he publicly endorsed the Secretary of Labor.

It is also pointed out as evidence that the situation is not settled that Secretary Davis has delayed the formal announcement of his candidacy. One reason given for the delay is that Davis prefers to cast his hat into the ring from Pittsburgh, the scene of his early day triumphs in industry which is his present high post in the President's cabinet.

Announcement Delayed
It may be, some political observers say, another means of giving undercurrents of opinion the opportunity to become more fathomable, before Davis commits himself irrevocably.

Salus visit here did make one thing seem rather certain and that is that the primary will be bitterly contested. Hopes for an Amistice between the state organization leaders and the Philadelphia "war board" are rather ill-founded.

The Philadelphia organization is in the fight to the finish. Self respect demands that we go through with the fight," Salus declared.

Bitter Fight Looms
Pennsylvania Congressmen and Republican national leaders are reported as being secretly uneasy over the prospects of the primary. A bitter fight with the Republican ranks split means that there will be more money spent in the primary than the Republican leaders care to have used. This is not the time nor the state for excessive campaign funds investigations. Republican leaders agree and if it is possible to get through the primary without a fight, they will breathe much easier.

Salus was to be in Philadelphia today and in Pittsburgh Saturday. His visit here was for "business" though he said he would and did discuss politics "if he were asked."

committee the prohibitory laws have saved more lives in the United States than were lost in the World War by the American forces.

The death rate, he said, has steadily decreased since prohibition became effective, and the economic benefits of the law have been incalculable.

Callahan has long been a prohibitionist.

Liquor Propaganda
"When I was directing the commission on religious prejudices," he said, "I found that a great deal of the prevailing prejudices was due to the liquor problem; largely as a result of a vicious and insidious propaganda by the liquor people to play upon the fears and prejudices of Catholics by not only intimating but making a direct charge that prohibition was Protestantism and purposely planned to interfere with Catholic services by ultimately making it impossible to offer up the sacraments of the Mass."

Having been in the anti-liquor movement for some years at that time and knowing the leaders and their motives, it was plainly obvious it was merely another instance of using religious prejudice for material purposes.

Callahan specifically denied that the anti liquor movement was "an evangelical protestant institution."

During these last years Wayne B. Wheeler, Dr. McBride and others have not had more to do with the policies of the prohibition than I. When it became necessary to coordinate these activities I, a Roman Catholic, was named chairman.

Sir William Huggins, an English astronomer (1824-1910), was a pioneer in the chemical analysis of the stars by use of the spectroscopic. He made a careful study in 1864 of a few bright stars, and positively identified the lines of sodium, magnesium, iron, hydrogen and other elements. These chemical substances Huggins determined by the black absorption lines in the spectrum. He also made chemical analysis of comets; he made a spectroscopic investigation of planetary and diffuse nebulae; and applied the spectroscopic in determining the radial velocity of light. In 1830 Huggins in England and Draper in America, introduced photography in getting stellar spectra.

Automobile engineers who worked for years in an effort to reduce gasoline consumption have found the solution in a marvelous invention that fits all cars. An actual test made by one of the engineers showed 59 miles on a gallon of gas. Thousands of car owners have already installed this new invention. They not only report amazing gas savings but are also surprised to find quicker pick-up, instant starting, smoother running motors and disappearance of carbon. E. Oliver, 999-3459 E. Cathedral Big City Benefit

Makes Possible Such Events As Banquet Tuesday Night

Since the annual National Commander's banquet of the American Legion held in the Cathedral Tuesday evening, there have been a number of comments made upon the excellent manner in which the banquet was handled.

The Cathedral is the one place in this county where such gatherings can be staged. There is room to handle immense crowds and the reason for this is the members back of the organization which owns the building.

The revenue brought into the building has been curtailed somewhat because of lack of shows being brought in and the rentals charged for the use of the building are usually much less than the cost of the service. However, the Cathedral organization wants to have a part in the civic affairs of the city and for this reason makes the rentals as easy as possible.

the intruders. Entrance to the building had been gained by battering down a thick door in the rear of the schoolhouse which is out of sight from passing pedestrians.

A strange feature that puzzled police was that, despite the crashing of timbers which was necessarily incident to the breaking of the door, residents in the vicinity reported no unusual noise throughout the night.

A communist meeting was scheduled for tonight. Mayor Luther S. Crawford has ordered police reserves to prevent parades or street demonstrations and to see that order prevails.

Whether the vandalism at the school early today would affect the communists' plans to go ahead with the meeting tonight could not be learned.

TANLAC FREES JOHN BURKHARDT OF STOMACH TROUBLES
Flat on Back, Super Medicine Puts Him Back on Job
In a few days quicker than you ever thought possible—that super medicine Tanlac starts to prove its merit. And amazing though it may seem, the more stubborn and unyielding the case may be, the more remarkable is the work that Tanlac does in straightening out weak disordered stomachs. It's a real medicine formulated according to modern medical science—that's why—not just a "patent medicine" that makes a lot of ridiculous claims to cure everything. Tanlac was prepared for the specific purpose of strengthening the ailing organs of digestion and because every ingredient in it is designed for helping the good work along, it has won easy victories where every other drug has failed. And remember this, when stomach troubles are ended you'll be absolutely amazed at the way bowel troubles, constipation, dizziness, headaches, and even rheumatism usually disappear completely. Tanlac has brought glorious new health to hundreds right here in this town. Among the recent cases is Mr. John Burkhardt who says: "I was flat on my back when I started taking Tanlac. A few doses began to improve my appetite, my digestion grew better, and I was soon back on the job." Every man who is enthusiastic letters of testimonials—22,000,000 bottles have been sold. Guaranteed by all the druggists to accept no substitute.

THE EXTENT TO WHICH THE OTHER YOUNGSTERS WILL GO TO CURRY FAVOR WITH MCGUIRE IS POSITIVELY AMAZING

SHOULD PACK BIG CATHEDRAL

LIKE most everything in life that is worth while, hospitals cost money to keep up. Ministering to the ills of mankind, healing disease conditions and mending broken bodies requires money, and while moral support and kind words go far in creating good will, the manufacturers of medicaments and hospital supplies prefer certified checks.

The Jameson Memorial hospital is no different than any other hospital in this respect. A monument to the memory of a great man, the gift of a philanthropist, it nevertheless takes money to operate and maintain this wonderful institution and the money must come from the people in the city and county it serves.

The method of raising money is not usually the question, the real question is, how much can be secured? Gifts of private persons, endowments, benefits and the like all help, and on March 13 and 14, a large group of young men and women of this city, entertainers of every kind will stage a minstrel show and revue, the net proceeds of which go to the Jameson Memorial hospital maintenance.

Singing a song, or presenting a dance means lots of rehearsal work, and the fact that ninety or more men and women are willing to take the time and energy towards staging the minstrel and revue is indeed a splendid commendation upon their motives.

As good as they are certain to be, the hospital will not benefit unless many people pay their admissions to see and hear the show. Hence, there is a part in the success of it for everybody. Not all of us can sing or dance, not all of us can take the time to sell the tickets, but forking over a dollar for a ticket or a couple of dollars for two, takes but little time, and the good resulting from it will more than repay the expense.

There are two reasons why this show should succeed. First of all it is going to be a good show, and secondly the proceeds will go towards supporting a hospital that is a picture of modern completeness.

In the revue are singers and dancers who have proven themselves. The show is going to be worth every nickel you pay to see it, and then after you get your money's worth, perhaps some poor unfortunate in the hospital will get more than your money's worth with the aid the money will help to give him.

SECRETARY LAMONT'S PREDICTION ON BUSINESS

The prediction that there will be a spurt in business in this country within the next two months, which has just been made by Secretary of Commerce Lamont, seems to have a substantial basis in fact. Conditions are not bad now; but there is no good reason why they should not be better within the time indicated. "We have done amazingly well," says Mr. Lamont, "considering what business has been through, and we will be back to the usual state of affairs in a short time." He has been given some statistics concerning the railroads and industry generally which are very satisfactory. His belief is that the first three months of the present year will be the worst, and that afterwards there will be a gradually upward movement. He is of the opinion that the unemployment situation will be well in hand within the next sixty days.

All this is highly encouraging, coming as it does from a department of the government which is in close touch with business. It has always been a difficult matter to get precise figures concerning employment; one of the troubles has been to find out the percentage of men and women who are displaced by machines. Another factor that cannot be overlooked is the circumstance that some two million boys and girls come to working age annually. They take the place of those who die or become incapacitated. The figures may be more or less than those given, but they are factors when it comes to obtaining statistics on employment. What we know is that we live in a wealthy country with great natural resources, and that we are fully justified in looking to the future with optimism.

This, however, does not mean that we should not do our part in stimulating industry. President Hoover has done his in urging the great business concerns to put on extra steam in the endeavor to counteract the natural feeling of depression that came to many by reason of the slump in the stock market last fall. If congress will do its share, there can be no reasonable doubt about the future. The other day there was a discussion about unemployment in the senate and each of the speakers endeavored to give a reason for it. But singularly enough none of them placed any of the blame on the fruitless debates in that body and on the disposition of the radicals to smash the policy of protection under which this country has thrived for so many years.

One of the surest ways of confirming the prediction of Secretary Lamont regarding the revival will be the prompt passage of a tariff bill that will put the mills and factories in full operation before the close of the year.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

OH, THESE WOMEN!

By LEOLA ALLARD

From San Francisco comes a cheer from a lady who says: "It's high time somebody wrote something about sales women." Then she leaps right out of a cloud of indignation and says: "The shops on Grant avenue are full of smart, overplished saleswomen who look their customers over so thoroughly that I have often wondered why they didn't open our purses and see what they hold before they agree to sell to us."

"When a respectable woman goes into one of these shops, unless she is extremely well dressed, she is hurried out by the man in charge. You are right, the younger girls try to please customers, but I think as you do, they are soon eaten up by the harder variety."

"I wish someone would go after these smart alecks who treat elderly women so shamefully. Both customers and fellow workers. Old age isn't a thing to be ashamed of, and when younger, happier women, can't be kindly to the tired old ones, it's time somebody at least mentioned the fact. There's a chance they could shame them into tolerance, at least."

Well, Mrs. San Francisco, I went in one of New York's smartest 5th street shops yesterday and I was the only customer in the store. I wanted to buy a dress. There were at least fourteen salespeople in the department chatting and holding dresses up to themselves. I waited five minutes at least before one of them ever approached me. Then she haughtily got another and that one shifted me to still another who acted too tired to be annoyed.

Where are the store managers? Don't they know or don't they care? A sales girl writes me that she wishes the customers would stay at home long enough to mend their underwear. She informs me they sell on commission. If women stayed at home, where would the commission be? Should women put on their pinkiest prettiest so that the salesgirl can endure her job?

Tomorrow I'll let some of the salesgirls talk. I have their letters before me, and they say PLENTY.

(If I'm wrong, write me.)

TODAY is appointed for a "great radical unemployment demonstration," in various American cities. Secret service men, and labor union men say the Russian government is financing this demonstration.

It may be, however, that the number of men really out of work in the United States has something to do with it.

New York City warns Communists that it will stand "no nonsense" and to prove that it is in earnest sends police reserves with tear gas bombs.

They caught one youth carrying pamphlets in red ink, telling the unemployed to "Starve or Fight." A little later they caught two ladies, Rose Berman and Sadie Doran, carrying the same accursed literature.

Mayor Walker tells the public that freedom of speech will be protected and guaranteed. That is wisdom. There is never much danger, even in bad times of unemployment, if you don't sit on the safety valve.

One year ago, Tuesday, President Hoover was inaugurated. Friends say he has devoted the first year of his term to "getting the facts" and the next three years will see vigorous use of facts.

Senator Fess of Ohio, said that the President had prevented a panic in the recent slump, and "saved prosperity." Also, the President has taken "the only sound view" on prohibition, which is growing stronger. In cities, education will overcome the opposition to it, says Senator Fess.

Secretary Davis, of the Labor Department, objects to talk about "dole" for the unemployed, and would have the government its fifty millions on public buildings.

That sounds wiser than it really is. Such an arrangement would suit members of building trades. The union would not allow anybody else to get any of the $50,000,000, and politicians wouldn't dare interfere with the union, even if it were right to do so.

Many idle in the building trades might not be able to reach the spot where buildings were to be erected. White collar men, the elevator men, the furnace men, chauffeurs out of jobs, could not suddenly become steamfitters, or steel erectors.

The government ought to proceed with public building, as a matter of common sense, having the money, and needing the buildings.

As regards unemployment relief, it has no right to make any plan that would benefit a special class. The "dole" is a hateful word, but expresses the only plan to help all.

Dr. Stewart Paton, no ordinary highbrow, but professor of psychiatry at Johns Hopkins University, tells the Judiciary Committee on prohibition, that moderate drinkers of alcohol live longer than excessive drinkers, or total abstainers.

That should be broken to Mr. Volstead, cautiously and tactfully.

Thus starts another prohibition discussion. Prohibitionists ask:

"What about John D. Rockefeller, pure water drinker, in his ninety-first year, playing a good game of golf, mentally as keen as ever?"

The wets will answer:

"What about Pope Leo, who wrote a poem in praise of light wine, and, past ninety years of age, directed the greatest church organization in the world? What about the Danish-born Prussian General Von Moltke, straight as an arrow, commanding troops at ninety? What about a distinguished citizen of Canada, who, recently celebrating his ninety-fifth birthday, demanded a roast goose for dinner, ate plenty of it, and never specialized in ice water?"

In Wall Street, money is "very easy." Loans to run 12 months, offered at five per cent, go begging. Gall money, used for stock speculation, costs only four per cent.

Things are cheap when you don't need them.

An encouraging statement comes from Mr. Edsel B. Ford, now in Florida. He is one who talks rarely, and is company, knowing the sales from day to day, possessing sound information about business conditions, he predicts steady improvement in business, particularly in industrial lines.

Mr. Ford expects to reach "our capacity" in May, producing nine thousand cars daily. If he only made fifty dollars on each car, that would be $450,000 profit per day, and on that, you can live.

"Well, honey, the car broke down and I had to fix it."

"Since when did you grease your car with red grease?"

Fancy needle work is coming back. Well, with skirts that stay over the knee, the ladies need something to do with their hands.

Moves In Railroad Mergers Create New Controversies

Burlington Line Proves Of Special Interest In Connection With Ruling In Great Northern-Northern Pacific Plan, And Baltimore And Ohio Becomes Factor

Two developments in connection with railroad consolidation in the United States promise to give rise to further discussion of the plans authorized by Congress and undertaken by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The position of the Burlington road raises questions in connection with union of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern, while the action of the Baltimore and Ohio in withdrawing its application for consolidation of various carriers also becomes a subject of discussion.

On the merger of the Northern roads, the ST. LOUIS GLOBE-DEMOCRAT comments: "That federal authority now cordially approves what it endeavored formerly at great cost in effort to prevent, is one of the indications of the remarkable reversal in not one, but many views, which a quarter century has brought. The ancient question, however, still presented difficulty, the transportation act of 1920 specifying that consolidations shall be sanctioned with due regard to maintaining reasonable competition, and two of the ten commissioners dissent because of that point. This exact plan of merger between the two roads was recommended in the several tentative projects in national rail unification outlined by the Interstate Commerce Commission a few weeks ago. However, the decision, which it is thought will be speedily followed by approval of other major unifying projects long pending, will not be received with full rejoicing by all the stockholders of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern. These roads own jointly all the stock of the Burlington system, whose earnings are among the most stabilized and generous in the entire world. In fact, in some years the earnings on the Burlington stock have gone far toward making it possible to pay dividends on Northern Pacific and Great Northern stock. Under both the tentative outline of projects and the approving decision, both roads must divest themselves of this desirable stock and another disposition of the Burlington is to be made. Many stockholders will prefer to have the Burlington without the merger than to have the merger without the Burlington."

Recognizing that "important forward steps in railroad consolidations are on the verge of being taken," the LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL quotes J. Van Hook Norman, traffic and transportation authority, who spoke before the Transportation Club and states: "Mr. Norman sees no benefit accruing to anyone from railroad consolidation, except the financial interests 'who will make money out of issuing securities.' He expressed himself as being amazed that an ancient political and economic policy could be reversed by propaganda. . . . Mr. Norman fears that the result of consolidation will be that advantageous long haul rates now in effect will be raised so as to permit commodities to move in from the short haul point, to the disadvantage of producers. The whole thing resolves itself into a matter of trust in the Interstate Commerce Commission—a few men sitting around a table in Washington," as Mr. Norman phrases it. It would appear that the case of railroad and shipper alike lies in the hands of these men now, just as it must continue to do under consolidation. Above and controlling them, it might be remembered, are the courts."

"The commission, while sanctioning unification," according to the NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, "has also sought to forge a weapon with which to defend its recent scheme of consolidation. It requires the Great Northern and Northern Pacific to divest themselves of their ownership of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy as a condition precedent to unification. These roads wish to merge with the Burlington eventually in a big Northwestern system. But the Burlington nucleus of traffic and independent grouping. There is force in the contention that the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern must hold the Burlington, or part of it, as a connecting link with Chicago, and the commission itself disclaims any intention of destroying that connection. Yet the Burlington, though an important and profitable road, goes nowhere in particular, and seems to be a more natural component in a merger of the two Northerns. The commission is, therefore, undertaking a strategical offensive in trying to cut the Burlington loose now. Pending the outcome of this experiment the unification just approved remain theoretical and tentative."

"The issue now seems to be," in the judgment of the ST. PAUL PIONEER PRESS, "solely whether the economies that may flow from increasing the size of railroad operating units are sufficient to offset the disadvantage of reduced competition. Many of these economies are purely theoretical; the elimination of competition is decidedly real. Nor does it follow that all economies will inevitably be passed along to the public. It is not established that mere bigness of a railroad system means more efficiency. It is not established who gets the major portion of the benefits of consolidation—economies, the public or the shareholders. The public's interest today in general rail consolidation is most obscure. It is asked to give up the benefits of sharp competition among the railroads. It must also be shown what it gets by way of return. This is something for Congress to reconsider."

THE PORTLAND OREGON JOURNAL points out numerous advantages which will come to its territory, including better access to the Willamette valley and "extension of lines to billions of feet of timber," as well as better contact with the Hill lines and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul system, and also comments: "But for the proposed divorce of the Burlington line from the merged Great Northern, Pacific as a Chicago connection, and but for the opposition to the merger by Eastman and McManamy, two liberal and stalwart members of the commission, there would be full reason for local enthusiasm over the authority granted by the Interstate Commerce Commission for the union of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific. Otherwise, there should be value to Portland."

"If the Burlington is to be segregated from the Hill roads," says the LINCOLN NEBRASKA STATE JOURNAL, "without receiving compensating advantages, the territory served by the Burlington will have been discriminated against. If compensating changes are provided by the commission, the loss may be minimized, removed, or turned into gain. It is in what happens after the Burlington has been divorced from present traffic connections that this territory must show its concern. . . . The readjustment will cost a great amount, will in some degree change present routing of traffic, may affect the market places of producers, and may not, in the end, result in all the benefits that some hope for."

Referring to the withdrawal by the Baltimore and Ohio of its application for unification of a fourth trunk line in Eastern territory, the PITTSBURGH POST-GAZETTE voices its "regret" in the B. & O. plan for a new New York-Chicago short line cutting across Pennsylvania," and adds: "Meanwhile there is the Loree plan for a New York, Pittsburgh & Chicago railroad that would call for the building of a 283-mile line between this city and Easton. It would tunnel the mountains, one of the proposed tubes being five miles in length. Its cost has been put at approximately $177,740,372. The B. & O., of course, and other eastern carriers oppose the Loree project, declaring it unnecessary and too costly. Its proponents, however, turn the argument upon the B. & O., declaring that if no new short line is necessary then its own proposal must fail."

THE NEWARK EVENING NEWS states that "the B. & O. in conjunction with the Van Sweringen roads, is preparing to fight, and the battle may be joined within two months. The effort would be," continues that paper, "to convince the commission that the fifth Eastern system, which it seeks to create out of the Washash the Western Maryland, the Seaboard and sundry other lines, is neither necessary nor desirable."

"It must be recalled," advises the PROVIDENCE JOURNAL, "that the Great Northern and Northern Pacific roads are not prepared to surrender their interest in the Burlington system. Nor is the Loree group ready to concede that the proposed fifth trunk system should be scrapped in order that the commission's plan may prevail. Indeed, so far as the withdrawal of the Baltimore & Ohio plan is concerned, and furthermore, so far as the commission's ruling in the case of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific is concerned, the consolidation movement has been scraped on a little progress. And aside from the offer of the Washash to amend, not withdraw, its plan, that appears to be the total advance thus far of the railroad consolidation movement this year."

"I see that Senator Borah is objecting to the appointment of Charles Evans Hughes as Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, on the ground that his judicial decisions are not correct. Gosh!

"If the audience will excuse me for a few moments, I will go out and explain to Lawrence Tibbett how to sing Grand Opera; then stop on the way back to tell Dr. Millikan about elections. The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

POVERTY

The news tells us that a western oil field worker lived on $1.35 a month for years. On a small wage he saved $20,000 in ten years. He had no home, no good food, cut his own hair, did his own washing. He had no books, papers, magazines. He lived a life of wretchedness—for the sake of saving money. It makes no difference whether it is the rich man who is the miser or the wretched poor man who starves himself to lay up a penny—it is all poverty of the worst sort. Money is not worth so much. Life is full of sacrifices which are not worth making. There is no virtue in poverty when common sense is not there. A life made empty by a distorted sense of thrift is not worth living.

KEEPING UP

Credit bureau managers are told that the great American "marathon" is "keeping up with the Joneses." Pride is a wholesome quality. Too much pride is an affliction. Pride without judgment is a source of misery. Pride which drives us to spend as much for "show" as our neighbors do sends us along the road to wretchedness. Thousands of Americans go into bankruptcy because of this race to keep up a show. After all what is the value of impressing somebody else if you are miserable inside, while you are doing it? What is thinly glittering impression worth? Measure it at its true value if you can. Decide whether you want it.

BOOKS DOWN

Let the cost of living be what it may and let the stock market make us sad, there is one sign of the times to give us comfort and joy. The book business is in process of being revolutionized. The dollar book may turn out to be the most powerful force in popular education in America today. Not long ago whenever book-lovers gathered together the talk was about the high price of books. Some publisher started something. Others got into line. Today hundreds of books worth reading can be bought for a dollar. The dollar book is the outstanding development in the modern publishing business. City are getting dollar bookstores.

THE HIGH-FLYING GRAD

Perhaps it is the boy and perhaps it is the school. Perhaps it goes back to his parents. Host things are finally blamed on parents. But for some reason or other the average young fellow these days thinks an ordinary job at reasonably good pay is not good enough for him. He feels an apprenticeship is a hopeless waste of time. If he is given a small salary he is sure he is sadly unappreciated. In fact some of the young men recently out of school feel they would rather keep their feet under the family table and do nothing than take a small job with beginner's pay.

Just where does today's young man get the idea that he is to start at the top and get top pay? Who tells him that? Things just aren't that way in life and it is time somebody told the boy the truth.

Prayer In Congress

The house met at 12 o'clock noon. The chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Father, whose bosom is love, whose mission is recovery, and whose purpose is pardon, we would spend a few rapt moments at the altar of prayer. We mourn the loss of one of the Republic's finest products. Just now we think of him whose feet are entering the paths of death. O God, let Heaven's blessing rest upon him and the companion of the years. With music in his heart he sweetened loneliness; and while the flowers of truth and purity are rooted beyond the skies, they blossomed in his gentle life. To him was given an invisible highway that reached to the realm of cheer and tranquility. The memory of him reminds us of the splendid service he gave our country and the deeds nobly done in the service of others. He softened labor, he refined learning, he exalted our homes, and drew men upward toward wisdom, knowledge, and culture. O Father, while the shadows thicken and the evening comes, let his life be our benediction and life our souls to god. Amen.

METHUSELAH OF INSECTLAND

"Ladies and gentlemen!" shrieked Biffer, who had taken it upon himself to be the "bally-hoo man" of the circus. "Ladies and gentlemen of Insectland, I am going to introduce to you a few freaks found nowhere else in the world save in the meadows and by the brookside.

"This old gentleman here," and Biffer put his claw on the back of a dusky looking insect that had just crawled to his side, "this old gentleman is the Methuselah of the insects the 17-year-old Locust. Only his name is a joke on him. For he isn't a Locust at all. He belongs to the tribe of Bugs and his real name is Cicada. What do you think this fellow has been doing all his life long? He has been hiding in the roots of a tree living on his bitter juices. For 17 years he has been shut up in the dark, twigs only a few days ago he came up into the sunshine. But for all he came into the world much older than any of us are, his heart is young and in the right place. Listen, folks, what do you think 'Methuselah' did yesterday?"

"What did he do?" shrieked the insects in chorus.

"He married the prettiest bride in all Cicada circles and took her to live in that big tree that grows in the meadow. Cicada and his wife are now home to all their friends. Only, the happy couple have asked me to say no Hornets or Wasps are welcome."

The insects chuckled, but Peter, the boy, was puzzled.

"Why don't 'Methuselah' and his wife like Hornets?" he asked.

Biffer took time to explain things. "There's a mighty good reason," said he. "You see when Wasp or Hornet, either for that matter, meets 'Methuselah' he stings the old fellow so badly that he can't move a wing. Poor 'Methuselah' is helpless."

Aged Man Is Found Dead In His Home

Lived Alone And Had Been Dead For Some Time Before Investigation Is Made

Frank Picuh, aged 70, was found dead in his home at 1233 Moravia street Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Picuh lived alone in a little one story building which served him as a home and a workshop. He was last seen about the place on Tuesday afternoon.

Noticing that there was no smoke coming out of the chimney and that he had not seen Picuh about Wednesday forenoon, John Pulaski, a neighbor, investigated. Peering through a window he saw Picuh lying on a couch. Efforts to arouse him were futile and the police were called.

Officers Longstreth and Criswell, who responded, broke a window and entered Picuh's home. Coroner J. P. Caldwell was called. He found the body cold and still. In his opinion death had come sometime during Tuesday night, and was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage.

Picuh was born in Poland. He came to this country in early life and worked at his trade as a blacksmith. Of late he had no regular occupation. He was quite a mechanic, and among his diversions was that of making violins. A half dozen violins, in different stages of construction, were found in his workshop. He also did considerable work in the way of repairing violins and other musical instruments.

He has a brother, Frank Picuh in Cleveland, O. Coroner Caldwell wired the brother last night and received a reply that the brother would be here this forenoon.

Congressman Glynn Dies While On Train

Congressman Glynn, Connecticut, Returning To Capital From West Virginia Dies

Stricken On Train Bearing No Physician Proves Fatal To Aged Member Of House

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—Rep. Jas. P. Glynn (R.) of Connecticut, died suddenly this morning as a train upon which he was returning from West Virginia as it approached the Union Station here.

Rep. Glynn, who was 63 years old and serving his seventh term in Congress had gone to West Virginia Tuesday as a member of the congressional funeral party to attend services for Rep. Hughes, a colleague.

About 6 o'clock this morning, according to other members of the party, the Connecticut representative complained of feeling ill and summoned aid. There was no physician aboard the train, but a telegram was hurriedly dispatched to Washington to have an ambulance at the station.

When the train arrived at the station three-quarters of an hour later, at 6:45, Rep. Glynn was dead. Physicians who met the train announced after a hurried examination that death was due to heart disease.

Rep. Glynn spent most of his adult life in public service. He was for ten years town clerk of Winsted, Conn., and later prosecuting attorney and postmaster. He came to Washington as a member of the 64th Congress. He was a member of the military affairs committee.

His widow survives.

British Naval Expenditures Are Decreased

(International News Service) LONDON, March 6.—Publication today of estimates for British naval expenditures for 1930 revealed a reduction of 4,126,000 pounds (approximately $20,630,000) from naval expenditures made in 1929.

The 1930 naval estimates were placed by the admiralty at 51,739,000 pounds (about $258,695,000) as compared with the 1929 figure at 55,865,000 (about $279,325,000).

The 1930 naval estimates were hailed with optimism in London naval conference circles as indicating that the British government feels certain the five-power parity will result in actual naval reduction.

Motor Directory Of 1907 Shows Pictures Of Snappy Sport Models Then In Vogue

Did you ever know that Henry Ford once had on the market a 6 cylinder automobile? Or that rumble seats were in the style 23 years ago? Or that lamp post headlights on the running board were also the rage 20 years ago? That the horsepower of Cadillac autos was actually 10?

No? Yes.
William S. Culbertson, of E. Washington street, owns a motor car directory issued in 1907. And it certainly is interesting.

In this directory, there are the pictures of scores of automobiles. Perhaps the best way to describe the pictures would be to say that they look like college students. Savvy?

There was a Dolson Cannon Ball, a snappy 6 horsepower, 4 cylinder car, and an Aerocar, which by the way, looked more like the latest sport numbers than any of the other cars. Many makes of cars which the younger automobile enthusiasts have never heard of, are illustrated in Mr. Culbertson's directory. There was a Jackson, a Duryea, a Waltham, Chalfant, Laverne, Mason, Michigan, Pullman, Western, Eagle, Detroit, Elmore, Mora, Hill and Moline. That is only a partial list of the many strange names.

The prices ranged from $800 to $15,000. The $15,000 automobiles were trimmed in shiny brass and they were so fully equipped that there was little room left to sit in.

If it weren't for several little differences, the classy cars of 1907 would look the same as the classy car of today.

The steering wheel was located directly under the nose of the driver.

The handbrake stood on the running board. The horn necessitated being squeezed. When the rubber ball was squeezed, the horn would squeal.

There was always a little handle for the lady passenger to hold on to, when the automobile sped along the road at 3 miles an hour. The gas tank sat on the running board. The Autocar limousine looked like a peanut stand, which lacked peanuts. The Deere resembled a set of false teeth, if a person does not control his imagination.

But they all had four wheels, and there resemble the cars of today.

The rumble seats, to judge by the pictures, looked none too comfortable. But then, that was why they could be recognized as rumble seats.

The electric buggy manufacturers catered to the women. In the directory is many pictures of these electric pleasure cars.

Then there was a picture of a two cylinder, three seated, depot wagon, which was guaranteed to convey six persons, regardless of size. There was a Brewery truck with no nose, and with an umbrella elegantly standing over the driver.

Another surprising fact is that quite a few 8 cylinder cars were listed in the catalogue.

Mr. Culbertson has been given offers for the old catalogue, but has not given it up. Mr. Culbertson was one of the pioneer owners of automobiles in this section.

It may be poor sportsmanship to hit a man when he's down but it's at least taking advantage of a good opportunity.—The Columbus Ohio State Journal.

One Week From This Evening Will See Opening Performance Of Minstrel And Revue Benefit

Just one week from tonight, March 13, to be brutally frank, the first performance of the Jameson Memorial minstrel and revue will take place at the Cathedral, and with a week left to rehearse the performers are ready. Rehearsing, in fact, and by this time a week the show is going to be polished until it shines.

Now this is to be no ordinary show. Not by a lot. It's the second annual show of its kind, and by next year the show will be old enough to be listed as a custom. Not an old Spanish custom, just a custom. In this year's presentation will be found many of last year's stars, with a lot of new twinklers blossoming out.

"How Do You Feel, Bones?" In the middle of the circle, the spot from where emanates that "How do you feel tonight Mr. Bones?" will be seated His Excellency, Hughey Hannon, in the flesh, not a motion picture. There are some things about which Hughey is not sure, golf and contract bridge and how to knit a wristlet, but minstrels are something with which he is most familiar. Back in the days when your father wore mutton chop whiskers, Hughey Hannon was learning his minstrel alphabet. For years and years, and some on top of that, he has been an interlocutor, or an end man in almost every minstrel show put on in New Castle, and the fact that he will be the center of the line in the Jameson show means a real show.

Out on the ends will be Tommy Blake and Paul Donnelly, end men par excellence, per se and tres bon. With a load of burnt cork on their faces this pair will lay the customers out in the aisles, and the boys aren't advertising any toothpaste either.

Among the ballad singers will be some of the sweetest ballad warblers of the city: Bert Sanford, Harry Masters, Pete Iodice and plenty of others, hoofing, singing and cracking wise.

MR. RENTZ FINDS REAL NEW CASTLE REUNION AT LOS ANGELES EVENT

Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cunningham, Miss Helen Irene Wilson, D. C. Plannell, New Wilmington, Mr. Rust, New Wilmington, Lillian Ewing Hausinger, Wampum, S. L. Brown, Mt. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William James, Ellwood City, Robert A. Wilson, Rose Point, Mrs. Neil McKee Glendale, sister of Fred March, New Castle.

I found three old school mates of mine here. Rachel Hamilton, Bill Leddy and Harry Kelly. I have not seen Harry Kelly for over forty years. We all attended the Reynolds town school together in the same rooms. Miss Bessie Fulkerson, well-known in New Castle, is very seriously ill at Santa Anna. We called on her a few days ago. The Bachelors of Los Angeles gave their 25th annual ball in the Biltmore Friday night. About a thousand men and women were there. They were dressed in the most elaborate costumes ever seen by humans. These costumes were secured from an agency handling movie costumes. Some of the women had very little on and others had on too much. It was a great event. They danced until four o'clock Saturday morning, when dinner was served. It was a great spectacle to watch the participants.

Dr. J. R. McCreedy and Mrs. McCreedy of Sewickley are at the Biltmore. Mrs. McCreedy is a sister of the late P. L. Craig of New Castle. Another sister of Mr. Craig, who has been seriously ill in Pasadena has not been told of the death of her brother.

About six o'clock on Saturday evening Lawrence Castle of Coaltown called me up and Matilda also talked to me. Lawrence said he had been down to Mexico and visited Tia Juana and Azusa Caliente and lost all of his money gambling and had to walk to Los Angeles. Matilda said he would be up to get some money from me. Well, he can have all I have.

Mrs. Genevieve McCreedy Weide spent Friday evening with us. She is the aunt of my two grandsons Richard and Freddie Rentz and the sister of their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fox, who live here called on us Friday evening. Mrs. Fox was Miss Clara Cosel, daughter of Jacob Cosel of New Castle. There is a service club out here called the Altruistic Club. In order to belong to it one must have been a former member of a Rotary Club at some time at some place. No others can belong, the word A-L-T-R-U-I-A-N means "Always a True Rotarian." Had the pleasure of attending it on last Friday noon. It sure is a live club and is made up of former Rotarians from all over the country. The piano player is eighty-one years old and is some cut-up. It has a limited membership of 100 and there are many on the waiting list to join. Any Rotarian can attend the meetings. I was called on for some remarks and made them of course. Three song leaders lead the singing all at one time and such singing. Percy MacNab took me to the meeting. Percy is doing all he can to make things interesting for us and he knows his California believe me.

There is a bird on the same floor with us in this hotel who can be heard raring all the time. He does not need a telephone to talk to Frisco but evidently has lots of money and uses the money anyhow. I heard two chambermaids talking about him this morning. One said he was always raising hell and putting a jack under it and expected the maids to travel on roller skates so they could get to him quickly as he wanted them.

The newspapers out here print very little of a local nature. Those people back home who are never satisfied with anything but the first page when they send in their stuff would have a hard time getting their stuff in the paper on any page here.

I heard a bird making a political speech yesterday and he said he made a speech in Long Beach from a Democratic platform—a load of fertilizer. Omygosh. There are a few Democrats here.

The president of Mexico is going to stop gambling in that country. He is evidently trying to kill it's chief industry. He did not say anything about controlling liquor however. I noticed where another dame busted out here and they don't seem able to control their water either. Oh row-de-dow-dow.

I saw a bird yesterday with football tires on his car—three down and one to go.

We saw a new play here, presented for the first time in the Biltmore theatre, which goes by the name of "Gone Hollywood." It is no play for those who expect mercy in the hereafter. I just went so I could warn others about it.

One can get a bunch of fine sweet peas here as big as a bale of hay for a quarter.

We went through a place called Oxnard the other day. This is the greatest beet sugar place in the world. They make five hundred and fifty thousand sacks of beet sugar of 100 pounds each every year. It is put up in 100 pound sacks.

This country is full of geraniums and they grow fifteen feet high. They are like weeds and are beautiful to me.

We also went through the Ventura oil field at Ventura. Oil derricks are everywhere, on the mountain tops and out in the ocean. It is a wonderful sight.

There are about a dozen service clubs in Los Angeles and one can attend two of them every day in the week. They sure do some boosting and are made up of real boosters.

There are a lot of stores here selling rose bushes and every time we pass one we feel like buying some bushes, but then we think roses cannot be planted yet back home.

We heard a chap say he was smoking an Al Smith cigar—up from the street. Oh, wham de doodle wham.

There were no five Saturday paydays in the last month of February. There has not been a February with five Saturday paydays since 1908 and there will not be another February with five Saturday paydays until 1936. Isn't that fierce. Check me up on that. Believe it or not.

They tell me out here that George Washington was not born on February 22, but was born on February 1, 1732. A lot of things are presented differently out here and that is one of them.

At one of the service club meetings a member was asked to define woman. He started off "Generally speaking" and was stopped by the chairman who said, "You have covered the subject."

They call electricity "White Coal" out here and they expect some day with the help of water power from the mountains to make this the greatest industrial center of the world. Hope rises eternally in the breasts of the California booster.

Every banquet out here serves peas and carrots cooked together. The carrot is going to have its day in spite of every opposition.

On last Thursday evening Miss Harriet Sterling, a former New Castle school teacher entertained us at a dinner dance at the Pasadena Club. We had a fine time and she had a nice company of her friends to help make it pleasant for us.

There are some rough ladies out here. I was in a barber shop the other day and a manicure lady took my hand and started to manicure my nails. She said "There are the damndest nails I ever saw." I told her I was no dude and no manicure lady had ever held my hand in New Castle as I had to work sweeping snow and weeding my garden.

Just now there was a knock on the door and when it was opened there stood Alf Williams, an old New Castle boy, who called to see us. He was in New Castle shortly after we left and has just come back home. He lives at Long Beach.

The Austin car is being exhibited in the Biltmore hotel. I had my first peep at one. They are being made to carry two people and are cut looking little buggies. They are going to make them at Butler, Pa. You folks back in New Castle know all about this little boat. They are on display in Butler, but I came over 3,000 miles to see one of them.

I got a letter from Jake and he says the onions are starting to sprout in my garden. This makes me feel like getting back on the job. New Castle seems to be a great place after all is said and done and seen.

Outside of writing letters back home I am busy. Will write again if I have time. Yours until we all see things as they ought to be.

FRED L. RENTZ.

Farmers Receive Census Questions

Several Thousand Papers Are Mailed From Local Office Of Bureau Of Census

Farmers in Lawrence, Beaver, and Butler counties are being mailed copies of the set of questions which will be asked them by the census enumerators, when the work of taking the 1930 census is started next month, by Census Supervisor Orville Brown.

The task of mailing out these sample question sheets is a tremendous one, but the job has been systematized as much as possible and it is believed that few farmers will be missed by this method.

Several thousand of these sheets are being mailed to the farmers of Lawrence county alone, in addition to those in Beaver and Butler counties. When the enumerator calls on the farmer, he will be able to furnish the information desired without the enumerator having to question him, thus saving a considerable amount of time in gathering the data required.

The Annual Meeting of the STOCK HOLDERS of the Dollar Savings Association will be held March 19, 1930 at 7:30 o'clock p. m. at the rooms of the Association, No. 10, East St., for the purpose of electing directors and transacting any other business properly coming before the meeting.

Police In Philly Watch Communists In Meeting Today

Strict Guard Maintained Over Communist Gathering On City Hall Steps

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, March 6.—Hundreds of communists gathered on the steps of City Hall plaza at noon today for a huge mass-meeting.

Dozens of mounted patrolmen watched the demonstrators closely for the slightest indication of trouble. The crowd had been given permission to assemble and listen to a number of addresses so long as the group behaved. The first indications of disorder, however, police officials said would be taken as the signal for dispersing the entire assembly.

Hundreds of curious spectators joined in watching the agitators, many in hopes of seeing a recurrence of the disorders that led to the charging of several hundred spectators and the arrest of a dozen alleged Reds two weeks ago.

Factional Strife Breaks Out Within Union Miners Ranks

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, March 6.—Factional strife among union coal miners was further complicated today when Freeman Thompson, acting president of the National Miners Union, left for Illinois, he maintains he will there attack both the Lewis and Fishwick groups of the United Mine Workers.

Lewis, nominal head of the United Mine Workers, has been charged by Fishwick with routing the organization during his term of office, by involving it in considerable legal difficulties.

Conventions of those loyal to Lewis and to the dissenting side led by Fishwick will be held at the same time Monday in Springfield and Indianapolis.

The National Miners Union expects the outcome of the battle to lead many miners from the United Miners Union to their ranks.

Unidentified Man Is Killed By Train

(International News Service) WHEELING, W. Va., March 6.—Apparently decapitated when struck by a train, the body of an unidentified man was found on the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad here today.

The name, John Hammond, was found on a pay slip of the McKeesport Coal Company in his pockets. His clothing indicated he was a miner.

Two New Cases Of Measles Here

Two cases of measles today were found by attending physician Dr. reported to City Health Physician Dr. W. L. Stoen. The patients are: Leona Pauline, 8, rear 608 1-2 Pearson street and Teddy Ferdney, 1214 Delaware avenue.

Railroad Thefts Here Show Drop

Seals Are Checked And Two Police Make "Rounds" Together

There has been great progress made in elimination of thefts from railroads in this vicinity during the past few years, according to Lieutenant Wright of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. He said today that no thefts have been reported in a long time. Thefts ten years ago were quite numerous and the railroads lost considerable but with a new system of checking thefts were reduced and today scarcely any are reported, it is said.

It is said that seals are examined in each yard and by this method it is easy to determine the location of the theft. Railroad patrolmen are employed to do the inspecting of the seals.

Another factor in the elimination of thefts is the method of having patrolmen work "double" or, in other words instead of one policeman making the rounds, two make the rounds together.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad has a force of seven police located here.

Huge squares of French linen are quite the latest thing in handkerchiefs to wear with the suit.

The Parent Problem

by GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

Forgiving Bad Child Often Hard

Any one who is a parent knows how hard it is to forgive a child even after punishment has been administered.

The lad of four has been naughty. His mother spansks him. He sobs and cries and finally recovers when a neighbor drops in for a chat. She says something complimentary to the child when the mother interposes: "Yes, but he's pretty bad sometimes. Just before you came I had to punish him." Late in the afternoon when she is weary and annoyed and the little fellow does something which she doesn't like, she reminds him of his naughty deeds and punishment that morning.

Coreen of seven has been caught experimenting with a neighbor girl. The game was "hospital." The neighbor girl was sent home; Coreen is soundly whipped. The mother has been overwhelmed. "Other children might do such a thing," she tells herself. "But my child! After a few minutes she says so to Coreen, and several times during the day the child is reminded of her awful crime. When dad comes home the mother tells him in the presence of Coreen, and he pours out his feelings, showing his surprise and grief.

Coreen is in disgrace. She thinks her parents do not love her any more. They really treat her as if they do not. Every time she looks at them she fears they are going to say something about the naughty deed. When Coreen says her prayer that night, her mother prays with trembling voice that God will forgive her little girl for being so very bad.

Next morning Coreen is not sure her naughty deed has been forgotten. She is pretty certain it is not. The mother may, indeed, say something about it several days later and she may betray her own doubts about her little daughter's conduct by the way she spies on her when her playmates visit her again. Neither the mother nor the father has romped so much with Coreen for two or three days, as usual. They have not told so many jokes and stories. They have not smiled so much at her nor given her so much approval. Instead, they have frequently found fault with her. What she really needed was more love, more games and more fun with them, more assurance that her parents cared for her.

When a child has done some specific naughty deed, deal with him as you think best, and be done with it. If punishment seems wise, administer it, but first be sure it will help the child. Once the case has been dealt with drop it forever. Don't mention it to the child again, nor report to any one else. Never bring it up. Act immediately thereafter as if nothing wrong had happened. Be sure your memory of the offense does not keep you from being as kind and loving as if the child had never erred.

To measure up to such a standard calls for all the self-control and character that we can muster. Then there will be in us an element of the Divine. "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us." Let us pray for this spirit in ourselves toward our children.

YOUR INCOME TAX

No. 32.
The tax on dividends is an important item in the returns of many taxpayers. As defined by the revenue act the term "dividend" means any distribution made by a corporation to its shareholders, whether in money or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913. If a dividend represents profits earned by a corporation prior to March 1, 1913, there is no tax.

A dividend may be payable out of current profits or accumulated surplus but it has no legal existence until it is "declared" by a formal resolution of the directors of the corporation. The ordinary form of dividend is a periodical cash distribution of current profits. However, dividends may be paid in securities or other property. For example, a corporation may distribute among its stockholders securities in which it has invested its earnings. Such securities are to be reported as dividends by the stockholders at the fair market value on the date the dividends become payable. Dividends paid by a domestic corporation are subject to surtax only, which is imposed upon net income in excess of $10,000.

The rate of tax on the income of corporations is reduced to 11 per cent.

Local Girl Will Play At Franklin

Carrie Gibbons Will Preside At The Piano In Franklin Gospel Tabernacle

Miss Carrie Gibbons, Haus avenue, a graduate of the mid-winter class of the New Castle high school, has been invited to play the piano for three weeks at the Gospel Tabernacle, Franklin, Pa., where nightly services are held and broadcasted over the radio.

Miss Gibbons has been pianist at the Simpson M. E. church and it was while playing with the church orchestra in Franklin that the management of the tabernacle asked her to play for them. During her absence, Emma Gibbons, manager of the Simpson orchestra, will take her place at the piano at the revival meetings now being conducted in the Simpson M. E. Church.

Rev. Mark Smith is nightly drawing crowds to the church to hear his stirring evangelistic sermons. Wednesday evening he delivered a most forceful sermon on "The Lost Coin," bringing an especial application to the modern age. These services are held nightly at 7:30.

Says Various Cities Discard Amber Light

Councilman Clayton Reeves has changed his decision concerning the amber light at Park and Highland avenues which now closes operation at 9:30 p. m.

According to the councilman he believes now that the light is satisfactory. A few days ago it was pointed out that the red light flashed temporarily as a notice of a change in signals. At that time it was reported that the law called for an amber color light as a warning for motorists of a change.

Today Mr. Reeves said that the amber flash is being discarded in many other cities.

Woman Is Badly Injured By Truck

ROCHESTER, Pa., Mar. 6.—Mrs. Edith Mullen, 54, of New Sewickley township, is in the Rochester Hospital, seriously injured as a result of being run down by a truck driven by Louis Frederick, West Bridgewater, police report.

Mrs. Mullen was delivering farm produce here and when her horse, frightened at an automobile, began acting up, she ran out from between two parked cars into the path of the truck, police learned. She sustained the fracture of her right arm and right leg and probable internal injuries.

Non-Stop Flight Is Being Planned

(International News Service) DETROIT, Mar. 6.—Announcement of an attempted non-stop flight from New Haven, Conn., to Buenos Aires, South American, was made here Wednesday by G. R. Pond, lieutenant commander of U. S. Navy and Lieut. H. G. Partridge.

Pond was on the Southern Cross on its historic flight across the Pacific. Partridge was an air ace in the World war. A Stinson tri-motored "Detrotro" plane will be used by Pond and Partridge in their flight, they said.

Greenville Youths Receive Sentences

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Mar. 6.—Floyd Owen and Nelson Moreland, both 21, of Greenville were each sentenced to one-month stays at the Mercer county jail in Federal court Wednesday after pleading guilty to violation of the Mann Act.

They were charged with taking two girls from Greenville to Kinsman, O., following a dance there last December.

Mortellito came to Auburn in 1922 after serving a few days of his sentence in Sing Sing.

Prisoner Named In Auburn Stabbing

Any COLD

That cold may lead to something serious, if neglected. The time to do something for it is now. Don't wait until it develops into bronchitis. Take two or three tablets of Bayer Aspirin as soon as you feel a cold coming on. Or as soon as possible after it starts. Bayer Aspirin will head off or relieve the aching and feverish feeling—will stop the headache. And if your throat is affected, dissolve two or three tablets in a quarter-glassful of warm water, and gargle. This quickly soothes a sore throat and reduces inflammation and infection. Pension Law Copies Given To White

Police Must Service Twenty Years To Get Pension Here

During the past two weeks copies of pension ordinances effective in other third class cities of Pennsylvania have been secured by city police and presented to Solicitor Robert White for his perusal.

According to the tentative bill arranged by White for proposed pensions to local police they all must serve 20 years before they can enjoy the fruits of their labor.

They can at sixty years of age and cannot work after they are seventy. If in the opinion of council as a pension board they are incapacitated for duty at sixty or any age older than that council can retire them on pension.

They will receive 20 percent of their salary at sixty years of age and as their services increase so does the pension according to the local bill.

Gillette announces a NEW BLADE... a NEW RAZOR

No more "razor pull"...
No more wiping...
with this new blade of processed steel

TWENTY-EIGHT years ago Gillette changed the shaving habits of the world by creating a safety razor with double-edged replaceable blade—an improvement so far-reaching that it has maintained leadership for more than a quarter of a century without essential change.

Today Gillette offers another great contribution to man's shaving comfort—a New Gillette Blade and a New Gillette Razor (patents pending).

The New Gillette Blade can be used in your present Gillette Razor. But the New Gillette Razor has so many points of superiority that any man or woman who has tried it once will gladly discard the faithful instrument of the past.

Used together, the New Gillette Blade and the New Gillette Razor abolish forever the two unpleasant factors in shaving—"razor pull," and the tedious drying of razor parts. Imagine a shave so smooth and cool that you hardly feel the razor on your skin. Think of not having to take the razor apart for cleaning—merely rinse it off and shake it dry. These are only two of the advantages of the new razor and the new blade. Read the other advantages summed up under "Quick Facts."

Back of these great improvements lies a fascinating story of research.

Twenty-seven thousand men have been interviewed. Tens of thousands of used razors were examined. In these studies a discovery of far-reaching importance was made:

Cause of "razor pull" found

In almost every case when a man complains that his razor "pulls," an expert examination shows that the razor has been nicked.

Why should a little nick—even a microscopic nick—spoil your shave? Here is the reason:

QUICK FACTS

1. New blade can be used in your old Gillette
2. New processed steel; new blade resists rust
3. Cut-out corners of blade prevent "razor pull"
4. To clean, turn guard at right angles... then re-tighten... rinse... shake dry
5. New shape guard channel gives full shaving clearance
6. New shape guard teeth meet skin smoothly, naturally
7. No projecting posts to dull blade edges
8. Reinforced razor corners prevent damage if dropped
9. Square blade ends safer to handle
10. Shaves easier around mouth, nose, ears
11. New blades same price as old
12. New razor, 24K. gold-plated, with one new blade, in case, $1.00

The parts of a Gillette Razor are machined to a fine precision. The slightest dent at one of the corners causes an unequal tension on the blade, throwing it out of perfect alignment. The blade may even crack under the unequal tension. Perhaps you have had this happen for no apparent reason. Perhaps you have blamed the blade.

Gillette finds the answer

We could not keep men from dropping their razors. But we could offset the harmful effect. To do so required a change in both the razor and the blade. In the razor we reinforced all four corners of the cap with sturdy lugs made to withstand nearly any kind of abuse.

The blade was treated even more ingeniously. All four corners were cut out; when the cap and guard of the razor clamp together, the blade is not held at the corners. Even if you drop the New Gillette, you probably will not dent it. Even if you dent it, you do not, cannot spoil your shave.

New processed steel... Rust-resisting. Just rinse... shake dry

When you see the new blade, you'll notice immediately a different, finer finish... the result of a new process of treating the hard special steel.

How many tedious minutes you have had to waste in unscrewing your razor, washing it off, and carefully wiping it dry! How many towels have been cut! Now the nuisance of unscrewing your razor, washing it off, carefully wiping it dry—and risking a cut towel—all this is abolished forever; the new blade resists rust. A single twist of the fingers turns the guard at right angles. Then re-tighten. Hold the razor under hot running water. Shake thoroughly. Lay on the shelf. That's all.

Shaves closer in corners

The ends of the blade are square—the old blades were rounded. A square end is much easier and safer to handle with wet fingers... no fishing down the drain pipe for a slippery blade. But even more important, the ends of the blade are much more nearly flush with the ends of the razor cap and guard... much easier now to reach those tough little corners around the mouth, the ears, the nose.

Notice the longer, bent-back teeth

You'll see, too, that the teeth of the New Gillette are a bit longer—rounded a little farther back.

A little improvement? Yes. But notice how smoothly the new razor slides over your skin. A shave so perfect that not a sign of a whisker remains. Yet so comfortable that you have hardly felt the razor.

The old posts that stuck through the blade and so often stubbed the edges are gone too.

Blade edge is clear but protected

Still another improvement. The guard of the New Gillette has the famous channel beneath the blade edge. This channel allows the blade to meet the beard full and clear, yet with perfect safety. Until now this feature has been available only in Gillette Razors selling at $5.00 to $75.00.

And the price is only $1.00

The New Gillette Razor, with all its improvements, is now offered to you, 24K. gold-plated and packed in a neat case, with one new blade, for only $1.00. And the new blades of steel processed to resist rust, come to you at the old price... $1.00 for ten.

To men who want the greatest bargain in shaving comfort that $1.00 has ever bought, we say, see your dealer today!

Local Aircraft Boys Enter Model Airport

Novel Exhibit Made By Franklin School Boys Now On Display

BUILDERS HOPE TO BRING BACK TROPHY

While New Castle has no planes to contribute to the City of Pittsburgh's second annual aircraft show, this city will nevertheless be represented by an exhibit marked for its uniqueness—a model airport done in miniature—a sample of the handwork of 13 boys who are members of the Ben Franklin Aircraft club.

Today in Motor Square Garden, where the show is being held, residents of Pittsburgh and aviation leaders and enthusiasts from miles around viewed the work of the local boys for the first time. The exhibit opened Wednesday will continue until March 15th.

Cleverly arranged on the floor of present day landing fields, the display in its entirety represents the united efforts of the 13 Benjamin Franklin youths whose interest lie in aircraft building. Every plane that rests on the field was made by one or another of the boys.

W. J. Wilcox, woodwork instructor in the Trade school and supervisor of the aircraft club helped the boys to plan their work, but let them do the actual building. Time reserved for the regular club period was utilized in this manner as were extra hours after school at night.

The landing field is probably 10 feet long and five feet wide. A runway is located in the center for the entire length of the airport, running from the airplane house to the end of the field at the other end. Both sides of the runway are lined with what appears to be green grass.

To each side of the runway rest 8 planes, 16 in all. Among them is the Spirit of St. Louis, a U. S. Navy plane, a Sea Scout amphibian and the Spirit of New Castle, modeled after Lindy's famous trans-Atlantic plane. Most of the remaining are Ryan models.

A touch of reality is given by the four adjustable flood lights, which use automobile headlight globes. They stand at each corner of the field. Another blazing light is located above the entrance to the airplane hangar. Immediately over the front of the small building is a wind bag, used by every airport as a wind indicator.

A novelty that no doubt will create some discussion among those who view the miniature display is the illuminated guiding sign bearing the words "New Castle" on the top of both sides of the airport roof. Ordinary glass was taken and painted black with the exception of the words "New Castle," which were left clear. The strip of glass was then placed over a battery of electric lights which throw the rays through the unpainted letters to the passing aviators overhead. The sign is so arranged that it might be read from two directions.

Inside the airport house is to be found a model arrangement of any hangar interior.

All in all, the miniature air field would be hard to beat and a more exact pattern of an up-to-date flying field could scarcely be shown. A part of the exhibit is that found at the school exhibition during the state teachers' convention last December, but considerable has been added since then.

Andy Lasky, who made the Spirit of St. Louis model and Mike Flack, who constructed the U. S. Navy plane from a meager outline in four days, contributed the best plane in the entire group, although all bear out the crafty handwork ability of the boys.

Besides Lasky's and Flack's plane are those built by Bernard Sesko, Louis Dudek, Rex Rowland, Sidney Taylor, Bernard Lutz, George Jones, Walter Masbyk, Tony Ferrone, and David Walls. Flood lights that play electrical beams on the field were made by Mike DeCarbo and William Antilla.

The model airport will be on exhibition at the Pittsburgh show until the close, according to Mr. Wilcox, and it is hoped by the club that some of the six attractive prizes offered might be won. The boys are aiming for the grand prize trophy.

According to Mr. Wilcox, schools all over the Pittsburgh district and in other sections surrounding are in competition with the boys. Awards will not be made until later.

AGED INDIAN TO TRANSLATE OWN LANGUAGE

Member Of Peoria Tribe Will Attempt To Write Dictionary

JOPLIN, Mo., March 6.—George Washington Finley, last full-blooded member of Peoria tribe of Indians, will, before he goes to the happy hunting grounds of his father's, try to write and translate the language of his tribe to a written dictionary.

Finley, a tall, almost perfect specimen of an Indian brave, is 72 years old and weighs 200 pounds. Finley's Indian name is Ta-wah-quah-ke-nough, meaning Path of Storm. His father's name was Crashing Thunder. Finley was born near what is now Paola, Kan., in 1858 where the Peoria tribe made its home. These Indians came from Illinois in 1850 and a few years after Finley's birth were moved to Oklahoma.

In his efforts to reduce the tongue of the Peoria's to a written record, Finley has secured the aid of the Smithsonian Institute and Columbia University. Officials of these institutions often visit Finley and thousands of words used by the Peoria tribe have been translated into English and now rest in government archives.

There are now four members of the Peoria tribe who speak the Peoria tongue and out of 500 full-blooded members living when they came to Oklahoma he is the only one left.

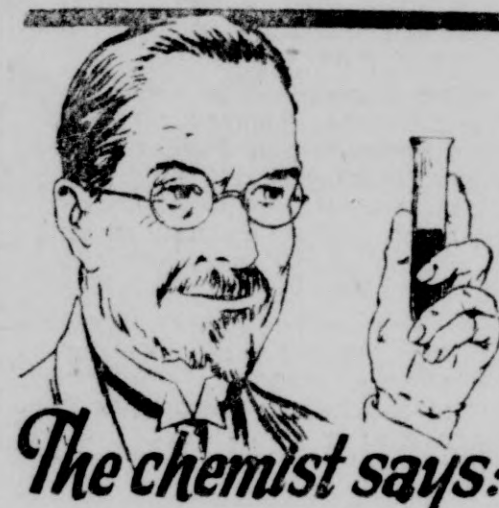

Finley has educated himself and when he was 30 he joined a circus as a bareback rider and married a white woman in New York. In later years Finley has returned to Oklahoma and is now devoting himself to farming.

Plaingrove Wants An Improved Road

While no formal petition has been presented, Plaingrove township residents have signified their intention of asking the county commissioners to have the Plaingrove road improved from a point on the Slippery Rock road north through the village of Plaingrove. No more road was graveled a number of years ago, but the gravel has worn full of holes, making the road very rough and uneven.

Report Lobbyists Using Third Floor In Senate Office Building

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Published reports that groups of unofficial high tariff lobbyists are occupying a third floor room in the senate office building and directing a fight for higher rates from that vantage point

Others working in the room, which has been assigned to Senator Grundy (R) of Pennsylvania, were reported to be John Lerch of New York, legal representative of the league; and Warren F. Doane of Philadelphia, long identified with the Pennsylvania manufacturers association.

Vets Plan For Big Open House

Will Be Hosts To Veterans Of District On Next Wednesday Evening

Members of the Harry L. McBride Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, completed plans for a big open house celebration to be held in the Legion Home association building next Wednesday evening, at their regular meeting last night.

District Commander John Templeton of Sharon was present at last night's meeting and obligated several new members who were initiated by the post.

Plans were also laid for an intense membership drive which will be inaugurated within the next week under Chairman Thompson. Posters will be placed in conspicuous spots about the city, calling the attention of all veterans to the benefits to be derived from membership in the post.

District Commander Templeton praised the members of the McBride post for the rapid strides they have made during the past few months. The McBride post is leading all posts in the 26th district in point of membership and is one of the ten largest posts in the entire state of Pennsylvania.

Reports were also made by Chairman W. H. Claple of the poppy day committee, who announced that plans are now well under way for the annual poppy day sale which will be held near Memorial Day.

Following the meeting of the post, a meeting of the tri-county council comprising representatives from Mercer, Lawrence and Butler counties was held. Delegates were elected to the tri-county council at the meeting last night, which include Commander James A. Bell, Leslie Wooley, A. A. Jones and George Christoff.

Man Is Wired To Railroad Tracks

ZANESVILLE, O., March 6.—Francis Bernard, 25, of Gloucester, O., was found unconscious, with his head and hands wired to the tracks of a railroad between Crooksville and Roseville. He was removed from the tracks a few minutes before a train was due.

Bernard was brought to a hospital here. He rallied slightly a short time after entering and told officers that he was attacked by four men who gave him a ride from near Crooksville. He said they robbed him of $2.50.

Mrs. Dewey Brown, a passenger on a bus that was passing the railroad, saw the man lying across the tracks. Other passengers released him and brought him to the hospital.

Will Inspect Milk Dairies In County

City sanitary police have not yet commenced using a coupe which recently was bought by city council for the department of health. It is anticipated that as soon as weather conditions permit travel city inspectors will visit dairies located in various parts of Lawrence county where milk is produced that is sold in New Castle. The car was a used machine and cost the city only $135.00.

Whenever automobiles get improved in design 't' point where they can take a 20-mile curve at a 60-mile clip, they'll be gettin' close 't' perfection.

Must Take Lorain "Efficiency" Test

Patrolman, 65, Loses Legal Bout When Injunction Is Dissolved

LORAIN, O., March 6.—David Beatty, 65, Lorain patrolman who lost his first skirmish with the city administration in Common Pleas court over whether he can be compelled to take a physical examination, today was preparing to carry his case to the Court of Appeals.

Common Pleas Judge A. R. Webber dismissed a temporary injunction against Mayor Paul J. Goldthorpe and Safety Director S. J. Austin which restrained them from forcing Beatty to take an "efficiency" examination.

Beatty, a policeman for 22 years, alleges the administration is attempting to have him removed from his post by subjecting him to the examination.

Puts It Up to Civil Service.
Judge Webber ruled Beatty's petition is without grounds for court action and that the case is one for the Civil Service commission to determine.

Beatty's appeal is considered a test case here, as Mayor Goldthorpe plans to give a physical examination to all policemen and firemen to determine their fitness for service.

Goldthorpe would not comment on the court decision today.

In his eight-page decision Judge Webber said that Beatty has no excuse for court action until his position is jeopardized.

The Civil Service commission has not been approached in the case.

When Your Cough Hangs On, Mix This at Home

The best cough remedy that money could buy, can easily be mixed at home. It saves money and gives you the most reliable, quick-acting medicine you ever used. The way it takes hold of stubborn coughs and chest colds, giving immediate relief, is astonishing.

Any druggist can supply you with 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle, and fill up with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. It's no trouble at all to mix, and when you once use it, you will never be without it. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children really like it.

It is surprising how quickly this loosens the germ-laden phlegm, and soothes and heals the inflamed membranes. At the same time, part of the medicine is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly on the bronchial tubes, and helps the system throw off the whole trouble. Even those severe coughs which follow cold epidemics, are promptly ended.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of severe coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Young Man Recovers From Serious Injury

Has Foot Injured While Cutting Timbers On North Beaver Farm

Frank Warner, who makes his home for the present at Castle Hill mission on Vine street, is recovering from the effects of a severely injured right foot, which he sustained Friday, February 28 at the farm of Dale Robinson of near Mt. Jackson.

Mr. Warner was cutting timber for fence posts, when the ax, which was damp, slipped and struck his right foot. Mr. Robinson brought the injured young man to Castle Hill Mission, where L. Schmidt, the superintendent gave him first aid. They then took him to the Jameson Memorial hospital where the severe cut was closed by quite a number of stitches. He was then removed to his home at Castle Hill Mission, where he is improving as rapidly as could be expected under the care of Superintendent Schmidt.

The injured young man is but 19 years of age and is the grandson of General Warner of Civil War fame. His people died during an epidemic of influenza. He came to New Castle about two years ago, homeless and penniless and was given a home and shelter at the mission, where he has remained ever since, going out and doing work wherever obtainable.

Desires To Help Church In Trouble

Letter Comes From Wilksburg Regarding Union Baptist Church Difficulties

The News has received a letter from Mrs. W. H. Coslett of 708 Mifflin avenue Wilksburg, Pa., in which she asks information regarding the sheriff's sale of the Union Baptist church, having noticed an account of it in a news item. In her letter she says: "The writer would appreciate very much if you would advise the name and address of the pastor, as a Sunday school class here would like to send a donation."

We would also like to know just how long this church has to raise the money, also any other information you might have regarding same. We feel it is a disgrace to Christian people to have a church sold whether it is a colored congregation or not."

The News has sent Mrs. Coslett the desired information.

There were 10,187 new books printed last year, thus adding material for about 800 more best-book-of-the-month clubs.

FISHER BROS.

Bo Broadway

by JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

You can buy anything your heart desires in New York if you take the trouble to look around town for it. No matter how out of the ordinary the desired purchase may be, tucked away in some odd corner of a loft, a basement or a half-hidden, dingy shop you will encounter it, if patience is your guide.

An exiled Britisher, with a twenty-year residence in Bombay to his credit, motored to his Park avenue penthouse the other day joyfully hugging to his bosom a couple of cricket bats made in India. He had picked them up in a second-hand sporting shop on 14th street.

program, "born into the Social Register."

Be the handicap what it may—you can't keep a good girl down.

LINDY OF THE SAX.

I've just finished reading the life of the Lindbergh of the Saxophone—Rudy Vallee's autobiography.

Somebody said it was ghost-written by a sophisticated female movie critic on a tabloid. The publishers, hands on their hearts, depose and say that the Yeast Yodier wrote it himself.

It doesn't make much difference either way. Rudy is a nice young fellow with a curly-haired voice and the sort of mentality that usually accompanies a gift for blowing into the business end of a sax.

Ever so often Fate takes a pleasing little mediocrity like Rudy and eases him into prominence just for the cruel satisfaction of watching him whizz down the greased chute that leads to oblivion. The lad, I think, knows his own limitations and has sufficient prudence to translate his ephemeral popularity into interest-bearing bonds.

His book? Bait for butterflies.

A turtle needs sunlight just the same as a Park Avenue matron. Sunlight hardens the shell of each. No sun rays penetrate the damp, splashy precincts of the Aquarium and the shells of the turtles were becoming soft. Synthetic sun lamps were installed and after a few shots of violet rays, back came the strengthening lime into the shells. A female yellow perch given the same treatment laid three times as many eggs. The crocodiles perked up and began to weep as of yore, while the monkeys in the zoo, after basking half an hour in the artificial rays, took on the Floridian attitude of superb disdain which characterizes all healthy apes, human or otherwise, the world over.

ABOUT WHAT
"Ever so often," writes Bob Garland, Dramatist Dammer, "some lazy but literary young person writes in to ask how to become a dramatic critic. And ever so often the inquiry leaves my flabbergasted. If I knew how to become a dramatic critic I would become one. As it is, I am forced to rest content with turning out little pieces about the theatre."

Which recalls the sarcastic colloquy between the Cub Reporter and the Managing Editor.

"At last," sniggered the Cub, "you can't deny, I am modest."

"Modest!" snorted the Managing Editor, "what the devil have you got to be modest about?"

A Madison Avenue tobacconist, with an astute eye trained on the weather vane of Park Avenue, has stocked his shelves with diminutive and dainty cigars rolled especially for the female of the species.

According to this authority, women's taste in the weed, daily, is becoming more vigorous. If this sort of thing keeps up dispensers of chewing tobacco will be able to revive the old billboard.

Vets Bugle Corps Stages Parade

Members of the bugle and drum corps of the Harry L. McBride Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, drew a lot of applause last evening, when they paraded the downtown streets of the city.

The corps although but recently organized has made splendid progress and they presented a fine appearance last evening. It is hoped to add a number of additional members to the corps and to raise funds to purchase uniforms later.

The corps will be seen again Friday evening. Last evening, they were accompanied on their parade by the high school band.

Single prescription made a family doctor famous

SELDOM has any single act been of greater benefit to mankind than the one which Dr. Caldwell performed back in 1885 when he wrote the prescription which has carried his fame to the four corners of the earth.

Over and over, Dr. Caldwell wrote this prescription as he found men, women, and children suffering from those common symptoms of constipation, such as coated tongue, bad breath, headaches, gas, nausea, biliousness, poor appetite, or lack of energy, etc. And it invariably relieved these symptoms so much more pleasantly, so much quicker than other things, that his patients simply had to tell other people about it.

The demand for this prescription grew so fast that by 1888 Dr. Caldwell was forced to have it put up ready for use and supply drug stores with it. Today you can get the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, at all drug stores.

When you or your children suffer from any of the symptoms of constipation, it will pay you to remember this safe, pleasant-tasting, effective laxative; made only from herbs and other pure ingredients; a real corrective for constipation. A doctor's 47-year experience behind this formula!

Twenty Arrested In Pittsburgh As Communists Riot

Police Rush Twenty To Head-

As Communists
Parade

MOUNTED POLICE
KEEP CROWD MOVING

(BULLETIN)
PITTSBURGH, March 6.—Twenty persons were arrested and rushed to central police station in police patrols and one man was injured when rioting broke out shortly after noon today as the much-heralded communist parade got under way here. Mounted police urged their mounts into a crowd of spectators who were slow to heed the "keep moving" orders of the officers. Several of the spectators were felled as police clubs were brought into play. Sporadic Fighting. Sporadic outbreaks of fighting ensued along the line of march. Backing of an automobile sent scores of panic-stricken spectators scurrying for safety. The melee was quelled with quiet efficiency by the police. Nazzareno Puntel, 31, was beaten severely about the head and face when the rioting broke out. Puntel was rushed to Mercy hospital. Nearly 3,000 persons listened in orderly fashion near the employment offices of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company while a member of the Labor Unity league harangued them on unemployment conditions. Company workmen leaned curiously out of the plant's windows grinning at the lecturer and then went back to their work benches. Scheel led meetings of the communists at Braddock and East Pittsburgh fired out because of lack of attendance.

WILL ELIMINATE KINDERGARTENS; SUMMER SCHOOL

the whole, decided upon the following major steps:

Kindergarten and Summer School
First—Eliminate the kindergartens from the New Castle schools. This means a saving of $6100 in salaries alone. In addition there will be savings on supplies, on light and maintenance.

Second—Eliminate the summer or vacation school. This means a saving of $7000 in salaries, with additional savings in materials, light and maintenance.

Third—Cut $10,000 from the sinking fund, from which bonded indebtedness is paid. This $10,000 is not a part of the bonds that must be paid off each year, but part of the "optional bonds" that is, bonds which can be paid before maturity. This saving is not a permanent saving as it must be paid later on, but is an economy step for the coming year.

Fourth—Pay to the bone all estimates for repairs, books, supplies, new equipment and other expenses.

No Time to Raise Taxes.
The slashing done Wednesday evening was done only after careful study, and a thorough survey of the conditions. Members realize that some of the steps may be subjected to criticism in some quarters, but the answer of the board is this: "We feel that this is no time to raise taxes. If we are to keep the tax levy at the same level it was in 1929, then we must economize. If the kindergartens and summer school and other items of expense are to be left in, then we must raise the millage."

Must Cut $53,038.
The estimated budget for the coming year is $1,209,940. The total revenue in sight from all sources, which include the tax levy of 16 mills, is $1,156,902. The difference of $53,038 must either be made up by taxation or dropped from the budget. The following table shows where the income is derived:

State appropriation	$ 135,000
Vocational appropriation	5,000
Tuition from other dist.	22,000
Sales, refunds, etc.	3,000
Interest on deposits	5,000
$5 per capita on 22,800 tax- payers	114,000
Levy of 16 mills on valuation of $4,556,400	872,902
Total income, all sources	$1,156,902
Budget estimate	1,209,940
Out necessary to keep with- in 16 mills	$ 53,038

Beyond Control.
Two items over which the school board has no control stand out as the big reasons for the increase in the budget estimate. First of all is the matter of teachers' salaries. Under the Edmunds act of 1919 each teacher is guaranteed a yearly increase of $100 up to certain limits. This is prescribed by state law, and the board can do nothing but comply with it. In 1929-30 the total of teachers' salaries was $672,095. With no increase in personnel, but due solely to the increase provided for in the school code, the total for 1930-31 for teachers' salaries is $687,179, an increase of $15,084.

The sinking fund, from which bonded indebtedness is paid, amounted to $170,915. In 1930-31, the sinking fund amounts to $210,000, an increase of $39,085. Included in the sinking fund each year has been an item of $20,000 which has been used to pay off optional bonds. This meant an equalizing of the average yearly burden for the payment of bonds in the next six years will show an increase. By paying off a little more than was called for each year, the average was kept down. This amount of bonds that must be retired each year runs from $50,000 this year to $90,000 in 1933. By paying off some of the optional bonds the average would be kept around $80,000. To this must be added the interest on all outstanding bonds. This must be paid, and bonds must be retired when they come due. While the board would sooner pay off $20,000 optional bonds this year, they have cut $10,000, a saving for this year but not a saving in the long run.

From an examination of these figures one can see that the ordinary increase, over the board has no control whatever, amounts to nearly $43,000. It is physically impossible to cut this increase out.

Repairs that have been left go in other years must be made this year, another estimated increase of $20,000, and to leave the repairs go now would mean double the expense in another year. Even if that, the repairs are being kept down to just what is absolutely necessary.

Board Agreed On Economy
The members of the board, meeting in Committee of the Whole were a unit in declaring that the economies this year must be rigid. When the meeting opened, Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools said, "this year is one in which we will have to economize more rigidly than ever before. The budget estimates show that a cut of $53,038.00 is necessary if we are to stay within the sixteen mill limit. In my estimation this is no year to be raising taxes. Insofar as it is possible, I am keeping down the expense to a minimum, remembering that we cannot lower the standards of efficiency."

President Daniel B. Woolcock reiterated the opinion of Dr. Green and said, "we are going to have to make some severe cuts, some of them that will be painful no doubt, but I am not in favor of raising taxes, even if we have to eliminate some of the work we have been doing."

The Committee of the Whole then started chiseling and Attorney Roy W. Hazen, a member of the important Sinking Fund committee laid out a graph of how the bonds were being paid off. He suggested that a cut of $10,000 could be made in the payment of optional bonds and this was adopted.

A. C. Hyde was equally convinced that economies were necessary. "We are going to have to cut deeply," said Mr. Hyde, "and I am in favor of pruning this budget down to where it will fit the sixteen mill levy."

Mrs. Rose M. Nothdurft agreed that economies were necessary, but expressed the hope that the kindergartens and summer school might be put back in. Mrs. Ethel Ashmore Douthett was of a similar mind. Dr. W. D. Cleland went on record as favoring every economy possible.

Start The Chiseling
Beginning at eight o'clock the "chiseling process" started. New equipment was cut down, and some savings affected here. Other items of $150,000, and upwards were clipped off and by nine o'clock the committee was ready to discuss the summer school.

"The summer school was originally intended to let children make up certain studies in which they failed," said A. C. Hyde. "It has grown to the place where students attend there in order to skip a grade, students have grown to know that if they fail in a subject it is an easy matter to pick it up in summer school, and in some cases parents would sooner have their children in summer school than around the house. I believe we can cut some on this."

Dr. Green said "the summer school was instituted before I came to New Castle four years ago. I agree with Mr. Hyde that the use for which it was intended has been enlarged, and I believe we could cut out the first six grades without any serious damage."

"But supposing some youngster in the elementary grades loses time through sickness during the year," said Mrs. Douthett. "Shouldn't he be allowed to pick it up in summer school?"

"A youngster who loses time in the regular year by sickness is better off out in the sunshine and fresh air, than in attending summer school," said Dr. W. D. Cleland.

Duff Wields The Axe
Walter W. Duff, who up to this time had not been present, arrived about nine o'clock and was told that the board had chiseled away some $290,000 from the budget and was discussing the advisability of doing away with part of the summer school.

"We are never going to get anywhere chiseling off one hundred and two hundred dollar pieces," said Mr. Duff. "It takes a lot of one hundred dollar cuts to make up $53,000.00 and I'm going to make a suggestion that I know will not be popular, but if we are going to keep down to sixteen mills for the coming year then it must be done."

"First of all, cut out all the kindergartens. They have their place, and it is nice work to do, but as against the necessity of keeping within a budget of economy, I believe the kindergartens must lose out. The same is true of the summer school. It would be nice to keep them on, but it just can't be done if we are going to re-trench. Take $10,000 from the sinking fund, eliminate an item of $2500 for the remodeling of the basement of West Side school, cut every other place we can, and then instruct Dr. Green to chop off the rest that is needed. The elimination of the kindergartens will save us $6100 in salaries alone, the elimination of the summer schools will save us $7000 in salaries alone, the West Side repairs amount to $2500, and there we have $25,000. This is some start at least on the total of $53,038 at which we are shooting."

Fell Asleep At His Post

Watchman Was Sick But Thought He Just Had
'Spring Fever'

Newspaper Told Only Part of the Story, For the Man Was Not Altogether to Blame.

You have felt just this way yourself in the first warm days of spring, when it seemed you just must sleep—that you couldn't keep awake. You were full of the accumulated poisons of winter confinement, and winter colds and until you threw them off you had "spring fever."

Winter colds and confinement fill your system with catarrh. Its poisonous products permeate your body and dull your mind. You may suffer greatly from your stomach, or you may just be dull, heavy and sleepy. When Nature warns you this way, heed her. Start a course of treatment with World's Tonic. Help the body throw out the wastes, clear up your catarrh, and purify your blood before it is too late. World's Tonic is one of the most popular remedies for catarrh and its consequences. A bottle or two of it in the spring will help you. World's Tonic is for sale at Eckerd's, McKee's, Paisley's, Smith's and all other first class drug stores.

"The summer school was originally intended to let children make up certain studies in which they failed," said A. C. Hyde. "It has grown to the place where students attend there in order to skip a grade, students have grown to know that if they fail in a subject it is an easy matter to pick it up in summer school, and in some cases parents would sooner have their children in summer school than around the house. Revolutionary as were Mr. Duff's suggestions, they met with the favor of those present. If they kept in the school work he suggested eliminated, they would never get down to the 16 mill basis. If the schools were eliminated they felt that some of the citizens would protest against it. The combined opinion of the board was this:

Talk It Over.
"We believe that this is no time to increase taxation, and as school board members we are opposed to any increase. Unless we retrench along some lines, we must increase the tax levy. We are bound by law to certain increases in expense, but we are not bound along other lines."

"The elimination of the kindergartens and the summer school will meet with opposition probably, but if the citizens feel that this is an injustice, we will be glad to have them come before the board and express their opinion."

Fell Asleep At His Post

Watchman Was Sick But Thought He Just Had
'Spring Fever'

Newspaper Told Only Part of the Story, For the Man Was Not Altogether to Blame.

Winter colds and confinement fill your system with catarrh. Its poisonous products permeate your body and dull your mind. You may suffer greatly from your stomach, or you may just be dull, heavy and sleepy. When Nature warns you this way, heed her. Start a course of treatment with World's Tonic. Help the body throw out the wastes, clear up your catarrh, and purify your blood before it is too late. World's Tonic is one of the most popular remedies for catarrh and its consequences. A bottle or two of it in the spring will help you. World's Tonic is for sale at Eckerd's, McKee's, Paisley's, Smith's and all other first class drug stores.

tee was ready to discuss the summer school.

"The summer school was originally intended to let children make up certain studies in which they failed," said A. C. Hyde. "It has grown to the place where students attend there in order to skip a grade, students have grown to know that if they fail in a subject it is an easy matter to pick it up in summer school, and in some cases parents would sooner have their children in summer school than around the house. I believe we can cut some on this."

Dr. Green said "the summer school was instituted before I came to New Castle four years ago. I agree with Mr. Hyde that the use for which it was intended has been enlarged, and I believe we could cut out the first six grades without any serious damage."

"But supposing some youngster in the elementary grades loses time through sickness during the year," said Mrs. Douthett. "Shouldn't he be allowed to pick it up in summer school?"

"A youngster who loses time in the regular year by sickness is better off out in the sunshine and fresh air, than in attending summer school," said Dr. W. D. Cleland.

Duff Wields The Axe
Walter W. Duff, who up to this time had not been present, arrived about nine o'clock and was told that the board had chiseled away some $290,000 from the budget and was discussing the advisability of doing away with part of the summer school.

"We are never going to get anywhere chiseling off one hundred and two hundred dollar pieces," said Mr. Duff. "It takes a lot of one hundred dollar cuts to make up $53,000.00 and I'm going to make a suggestion that I know will not be popular, but if we are going to keep down to sixteen mills for the coming year then it must be done."

"First of all, cut out all the kindergartens. They have their place, and it is nice work to do, but as against the necessity of keeping within a budget of economy, I believe the kindergartens must lose out. The same is true of the summer school. It would be nice to keep them on, but it just can't be done if we are going to re-trench. Take $10,000 from the sinking fund, eliminate an item of $2500 for the remodeling of the basement of West Side school, cut every other place we can, and then instruct Dr. Green to chop off the rest that is needed. The elimination of the kindergartens will save us $6100 in salaries alone, the elimination of the summer schools will save us $7000 in salaries alone, the West Side repairs amount to $2500, and there we have $25,000. This is some start at least on the total of $53,038 at which we are shooting."

Revolutionary as were Mr. Duff's suggestions, they met with the favor of those present. If they kept in the school work he suggested eliminated, they would never get down to the 16 mill basis. If the schools were eliminated they felt that some of the citizens would protest against it. The combined opinion of the board was this:

Talk It Over.
"We believe that this is no time to increase taxation, and as school board members we are opposed to any increase. Unless we retrench along some lines, we must increase the tax levy. We are bound by law to certain increases in expense, but we are not bound along other lines."

"The elimination of the kindergartens and the summer school will meet with opposition probably, but if the citizens feel that this is an injustice, we will be glad to have them come before the board and express their opinion."

Stomach Distress, Symptom Of Gall Bladder Trouble

If you have stomach or intestinal distress, headaches, dizziness, constipation, pains in the right side, especially under the ribs, you will be gratified to learn of and try a new pleasant home treatment.

It is called Klax-Ko and is recommended to bring relief and overcome the conditions which cause gall bladder inflammation and gallstones.

Bile stagnating in the gall bladder inflames it and if neglected causes salt formations which become gallstones. Avoid this danger. You can, as others have testified. Klax-Ko things the bile and assists the gall bladder to empty. When bile flows naturally there is no inflammation, intestinal digestion goes on naturally and gallstones cannot form or intestinal fermentation take place.

Try Klax-Ko today. The safe, harmless, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., or your own druggist is authorized to guarantee them.

ions. If they insist upon keeping them in the budget, then they will have to pay the bill in increased taxes. This action tonight is the action of the committee of the whole and is only in the form of a recommendation to the board. This recommendation will be made before any action is taken, the citizens should feel free to come in and express their opinions. They will be given the opportunity to look over the budget if they wish."

A tabulation of the savings accomplished through the drastic action of the committee of the whole shows the following economies:

- Eliminate kindergartens (salaries), $6,100.
- Eliminate summer school (salaries), $7,000.
- Eliminate remodeling of West Side basement, $2,500.
- Library books, $125.
- Supplies for schools, $300.
- New equipment, $1,485.
- Salaries, $1,090.
- Repairs, $6,425.

The total savings accomplished on Wednesday evening amounted to $35,825. There is yet to be cut over $17,000 and this task is delegated to Dr. Green and Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds S. G. Ligo. Both of them are thoroughly in sympathy with the program of economy and every nickel it is possible to prune.

The tax rate will be set at the March regular meeting in order to give City Treasurer L. W. McClung time to get out the tax cards in April.

Before going into the committee of the whole Wednesday evening the board elected Mr. McClung treasurer of the athletic council at a salary of $20 per year (which will be his bond) and Mr. Ligo as the northwestern interscholastic music competition to be held here April 25 was laid on the table. A committee consisting of Mrs.

Notthdurft, Mrs. Douthett and Mr. Hazen will investigate the possibilities of landscaping the senior high school grounds.

After a full discussion of chicken, biscuits and all that goes with them, the crowd enjoyed cards and bingo. Wesley M. Chain and a group of women employees made the arrangements for the affair.

Mrs. Walter Park of West South street, who has been ill for some time, remains about the same.

Chicago Gangster And His Bodyguard Victims Of "Ride"

John "Dingbat" Oberta And His Bodyguard Slain By Rivals On Lonely Road

ATTRIBUTED TO GANG REPRISALS

Believe Frank McErlane Noted Gangster Responsible For Killings

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, March 6.—With the double gang slaying of John "Ding-bat" Oberta, gangster, beer baron and politician, and his bodyguard, police today predicted against further reprisals guaranteed by Frank McErlane, the toughest of gangsters, after he was shot three times while on his hospital cot.

Gangster enemies kidnaped Oberta and a man believed to have been Sam Malaga, bodyguard and chauffeur, last night and took them for the typical underworld "ride."

Riddled With Bullets Oberta was riddled with bullets as he sat beside his assailants in his own automobile on a lonely road on the far southwest side of the city. His companion lay in a water-filled ditch beside the road.

The assassins presumably kidnaped both men and rushed them to the lonely spot in Oberta's high-priced automobile.

One of the killers drove, police believe, while Oberta was forced to sit beside him. The others rode in the rear seat, covering both him and his body guard.

The car stopped and Oberta was riddled with bullets from the rear, an examination showed. His comrade leaped from the automobile as his chief was shot and attempted to escape. A volley of bullets from the car's tonneau felled him beside the ditch.

Police immediately attributed the double killing to the stockyards beer war which was reopened with the shooting of McErlane in German Deaconess hospital when he fought a duel with three assailants who tried to murder him.

Former Gunman Slain
Lafayette, Ind., March 6.—"Orlando Jack" Horton, former Chicago gangster, lay dead here today, the victim of a gang "ride."

Horton was shot five times in the back and his dead body was hurled into a lonely strawberry patch near here late yesterday.

In 1924 after the murder of his partner, John Duffy, Chicago's first "ride" victim, Horton was hunted throughout the nation. Duffy himself was murdered by a rival Chicago bootleg gang for the murder of Duffy's common law wife, Maybelle Exley.

The bootleg rivals who undertook the execution termed the woman's slaying as "the unwarranted degradation of the profession."

No Move Toward Formal Appointments

City officials are maintaining silence relative to appointment of persons whose terms expired February 28, though it is probable that it may not be long until the solons act on the appointments.

It is reported that the terms of the street commissioner Harry Moore and his assistant Joe Barber and also the appointment of Ed. Stevenson expired at the same time. No action has been taken.

Recently councilmen were questioned as to when the offices would be formally filled for the next two years but no definite answer was given.

The plumbing inspector is recommended by the mayor and the council votes on the appointment.

Councilman Stanley Treser heads
the department of street.

THE QUESTION BOX CENTRAL PRESS WASHINGTON BUREAU

Answers to questions of information and fact can be obtained by writing to Central Press Bureau, P. O. Box 126, Washington, D. C., and enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope. No answers will be given to marital, medical or legal questions.

What man introduced the slave trade into America? Was he from north or south of the Mason-Dixon line?

The first African slaves were landed at Jamestown (Va.) by a Dutch ship, in 1619 or 1620 (accounts conflict as to the year). However, there had been Indian slaves previously, and white slaves (bond servants, at any rate) had been brought over by the settlers. It is impossible to say just where the system was started, much less by whom. It was first recognized by statute in Massachusetts in 1641; by Connecticut in 1650; in Virginia in 1661; elsewhere still later.

How much is a 1915 buffalo nickel worth?

Five cents.

How do the state and national governments keep their taxation sources separated and how avoid getting their revenues mixed? What do they both tax, and what are the chief sources of federal revenue?

The national and each state government has its own tax-levying and collecting machinery and puts its money into its own treasury. The bulk of the national revenues are from income and tariff taxation.
Taxes on real estate and personal property (for instance automobiles) largely support the states. Most of them also collect a percentage from the estates of people who die, and many have state income taxes, which, however, are wholly distinct from the national government's.

Who invented the automobile?—
Ford or Haynes? And when?
Neither Ford nor Haynes. The latest edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica says: "The motor car is not the product of a single inventor nor even of men within a single century." The Britannica inclines to give credit for "the first road wagon propelled by its own engine" to Nicholas Cugnot of France, about 1770.

Root vegetables, such as carrots, beets, etc., should be trimmed and brushed before storing. Leave an inch or two of the tops, and put away in a cool, dry place. If stored in your electric refrigerator, wrap them in a damp cloth. If vegetables are frosted or frozen when received, drop them in cold water (ice water is best) until they are thawed out. They will be crisp and tasty if treated in this way.

Oh, boy! no more colds

SOUNDS like magic. No more colds!
What wouldn't you give to go through the winter without them?

Here is one sensible thing you can do. A preventive measure that doctors recommend.

Every night snuff a little "Vaseline" Petroleum Jelly up the nostrils. It coats the membranes of the nasal passages. According to doctors, germs are not likely to get in their deadly work if these sensitive membranes are fortified against them by lubrication.

When you are outdoors on a dusty, windy day, use "Vaseline" Jelly in the nostrils to relieve that tickle. The tube is convenient to carry, so you can always have it with you when you need it.

If the throat feels husky, take a teaspoonful of the Jelly and swallow it.
Radio stars, whose voices mean their bread and butter, have learned this trick. You can profit from it too.

Lay in a supply of "Vaseline" Jelly —in jars or tubes—at the nearest store. Use it regularly every night.

Finter Five To Clash With Shelby Stars Saturday

One Of The Star Contests Of
The Basketball Season To Take Place Here
Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, March 6.—One of the best basketball attractions of the year will take place Saturday night here when the popular Finter (formerly Morry) Five clashes with the Shelby all-stars. The contest is expected to draw a large crowd of local fans to see the popular Pittsburgh five in action.

Shelby's aggregation will be chosen from four of the Inter-Departmental League teams. Those who have been selected to represent the locals are Les Clyde and the Lanky John Ursu from the Finishing-Cold Draw; Jim Fitzgerald and Dick Friedoff of the Hot Mills; Joe Gardner, Walt Sumner and Joe Latiano of the Specialty. Jim Greco and S. Elde of the Office Five. This bunch of scrappy players have strutted their stuff in the past season with the Shelby Leaguers and should present a strong quint. It is expected that this all-star machine will give the visitors plenty of opposition. Bob McKinny, who will be remembered for his fine performances at Wittenberg during his college days, has taken the locals in hand for the night. He has been putting them through their paces with a rigid practice session every day for the past week and the result is expected to form a strong offense and defense which will be necessary to stop the Finter performers.

Among the popular members of the Pittsburgh combination are: Eddie Lesman, center, Eddie Klein, a guard who played with the Duquesne-Lafayette last season; Harvey White, former Carnegie Tech captain, who will have for his running mate Sammy Klateman, a flashy performer of the West Penn League. The visitors will be lead by Wy Paris who will be found at the sentinel berth. He has been rendering valuable service to the Finter quint as he has in the past with the famous Raub club. He has played much in this district having taken part in contests at New Castle and Wampum where he was a member of the Raubs.

John Ruscovic and Floyd Worrell are responsible for this splendid attraction and feel that they will have a good turn-out to witness the contest on Saturday night.

Mrs. S. E. Irvine of the United Presbyterian church of New Castle presented a paper on "Women and the Official Church Boards." The members present were: Rev. Rohrbach of Richhill, Rev. Thompson of Volant, Rev. and Mrs. P. J.

Waynesburg Has Good Floor Team

Faculty Manager Gardner Sees Waynesburg In Action; Reports They Have Good Team

NEW CASTLE'S FOE SATURDAY NIGHT

Only a few days remain until the New Castle high school basketball team takes to the floor again for a game which means either the 17th victory of the season and a notch higher in the W. P. I. A. L. race or the first defeat of the year and the elimination of the locals from any further possibilities of winning the schoolboy title. In the meanwhile Coach Phil Bridenbaugh is daily staging workouts so that his Red and Black clad players will be in the best of condition for Saturday night when the locals enter the second round of the W. P. I. A. L. series at Pitt Stadium against the fast Waynesburg quintet.

Waynesburg by virtue of their impressive defeat of Hickory high on Tuesday night enter the second round of play against the New Castle team who trimmed North Union in the first round. According to Ralph H. Gardner, faculty manager of athletics at the local high school and "Gig" Thomas, assistant coach, who witnessed Waynesburg in action, Waynesburg has a rather fast team. They are about the same size as the local passers. Gardner stated that New Castle will meet a good team when they play the Section 15 winners and are apt to receive the first setback of the season.

"Waynesburg has the sweetest passing team I have seen in action this year," are the exact words of Gardner. "We will have to play good basketball to beat Waynesburg or we will be making our last trip to Pittsburgh Saturday." Faculty Manager Gardner said.

Coach Phil Bridenbaugh drilled his cohorts at the Senior high gym on Wednesday afternoon. The final workout will be held on Friday afternoon. The locals look fairly good in practice this week.

Tickets are on sale at the Sporting Goods Store on East Washington street for this game and according to reports are going well. Tickets are also on sale at the Senior high office. Preparations are being made by Faculty Manager to take care of a large delegation of New Castle fans. He has arranged a special train on the P. and L. E. station which will leave the West Washington station on Saturday afternoon at 5:45.

The score at the end of the first half found the Union high girls ahead 13 to 12. The Washington team went to pieces in the final two quarters. The fine playing of the two pretty little forwards, Miss Patton and Miss Kennedy, featured the game, as did the great defensive work of Winters and Campbell, with Carr and Smith taking care of their end of the team's play very nicely. For Washington the work of Miss Stickle and Miss Bauder featured on the offensive, while the playing of Miss Byers and Miss Russo was also very good.

Bobby Jones Is Quite Ambitious

Atlanta's Sensational Golfer Only Hopes To Win Five Major Events This Year

HE MAY DO IT WHAT IS MORE

By DAVID J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor
NEW YORK, March 6.—There seems to be what the press boys call a well defined rumor today, meaning that somebody undoubtedly got it direct from a friend of the housemaid's, that Bobby Jones is secretly planning to make this year of grace 1930, the supreme chapter of a life whose rewards have not been altogether niggardly. Jones, they say, is dallying with the idea of entering—which may or may not mean winning—five major golf championships before the end of the summer.

If he does this, the door will be thrown open to the possibility that he will be the first man in history to hold more than two major titles during one and the same year. Jones himself is co-holder of this record. He was open champion of America and Great Britain in 1926 and the following year he won the American amateur and the British open tournaments, having played in four great tournaments the first year and in three the year following. Thus, even to this archmonopolist, five major championships represent the saturation point.

German Open.
If there is to be a fifth this year, it probably will be the German open, starting on June 5 at Wannsee. The Germans, it is said, have been "tired" for some time, which is hardly a distinction. Everybody, it seems, has been after Bobby for some time, notably on the scoreboards at the national championship.

Jones, of course, is definitely committed to an entry in the British amateur, to be played on the so called old course at St. Andrews. The British open and the two American fixtures later in the season. These were the four big tournaments he played so well in his "bumper" year of 1926, winning two and reaching the final round of a third and the semi finals of the other. He can be figured to do no worse than this in 1930 and he might do better.

Optimistic Side.
In fact, the only way to figure Jones is distinctly on the optimistic side. If he enters five tournaments, the man will be a chuckle-head who bets the family bath tub that he won't win three of them—not until after Saturday night, anyhow.

In any case, an invasion of Germany won't interfere with Jones' ardent passion of the trip to Europe, the Walker cup matches and another fling at the British amateur championship of the big four, this is the only title that has stopped Bobby so far. It has eluded him much as the gaudy butterfly eludes the net of a hunter, yet everybody knows that Jones never will retire from competitive golf until the British amateur championship is his and many are playing the hunch that he is due now. A man like Jones doesn't keep going wrong indefinitely.

Anyhow, it will start on May 26 and, therefore, will be well out of the way before the German championship begins. The latter, in fact, ought to prove a pleasant interlude, for it will tune Jones' game in its transition from match to medal play and send him into the British open on June 16 with the steady influence of a full tournament of play against the professionals.

Steady influence? That's exactly what this man Jones needs. So does Washington monument.

FROM TEE TO GREEN

By ROY GROVE
Central Press Sports Writer.

When Willie McFarlane, former national open champion, is well on his game, and that means practice, there is no finer golfer on any course with the iron.

Seven points arise in making a good iron shot. That may sound disheartening, but some are acquired through naturalness. In analyzing Willie McFarlane, these points are as follows:

- No. 1. The iron points to the sky and the wrists are broken only enough to allow a snappy start for the shot.
- No. 2 shows the position of the left shoulder. Note the head is looking over that shoulder.
- No. 3. The right knee is slightly bending in.
- No. 4. The right leg is perfectly straight and stiff.
- No. 5. The heel and the ball of the foot of the left leg are flat on the ground. The average golfer will rise high on his toe, throwing himself off balance.
- No. 6 shows the line of the club in relation to the right leg and the whole body.
- No. 7. The line of the eye is directly over the ball, which is played off the center. The arms are kept in close to the body.

The score board showed 17 points in the All-Stars favor of 0 opposite Tooptown. McClure was the star of the game, sinking 6 field goals for the Clayton boys in the second half.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Bartley Madden, formerly a heavyweight and who was praised for his gameness by none other than the retired king of pugilists, Gene Tunney, died yesterday at Washington. He fell 28 feet from the steps of the treasury building. He sustained a fractured pelvis and internal injuries which proved fatal.

Preliminary discussions has started on a probable Carrera-Dempsey bout at New York this summer. Leon See, manager of the Italian "blimp" said he is faced with difficulties because Carrera has been boxing only 16 months and his opponents must not be too good. One of the opponents turned down was Chuck Wiggins.

West Virginia last night repeated over Washington & Jefferson 46 to 20. McNeil, the President's guard, kept a close watch on Captain Glenn but Cuban and Bartog found the basket for field goals each to lead the way to victory. Hamilton, center for Washington & Jefferson, chalked up 10 points through baskets from the field.

Earl Bridges of Cranberry Portage, Man., captured The Pas dog derby yesterday by defeating Emil St. Godard of The Pas who has won the event for the last five years. His victory came after 20 hours struggle along a 200 mile trail. His time was 26 hours, nine minutes and one second, the best time since Rusk made it in 23 hours and 42 minutes in 1924.

The decision is said at the latter city was unpopular. Tug Phillips and Joe Goodman box Friday at Erie. New Castle Team Sees Duquesne Win

Red And Black Team Witness Duquesne-Swiss Game At Pitt Wednesday

The New Castle high school basketball team played the part of witnesses at the Pitt Stadium floor on Wednesday night. The entire first string team saw a fast Duquesne High team defeat Swissvale.

On Saturday night New Castle team returns to play at the Pitt Stadium against Waynesburg in the second round of play. New Castle will more than likely oppose Duquesne later should they topple Waynesburg. This was one of the reasons why the local officials arranged to have the New Castle team witness the game. Duquesne this year has another crack team and it gave the boys an idea of what kind of basketball they must play to defeat Duquesne should they meet them a week Saturday.

Those making the trip to Pittsburgh were Russell Hannon, Captain Arthur Alexander, Luther Rowe, Regis McAuley, Nick Uram, and the following officials Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner, Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh, and Assistant Coach William L. Klee.

Rocco defeated Friedman at Centennial field, this city but lost the decision to the Bostonian at Cleveland in a later bout. There is considerable rivalry between the big fellows and fans are showing exceptional interest in the coming tilt.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. Then you destroy it entirely.

To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary lard, arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get lard arvon at any drug store and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

Kandy Kids Win Their 29th Game

Defeat Ellwood Team In Thrilling Game—Play Saturday Night

The Wampum Kandy Kids registered their 29th win of this season by overcoming the Ellwood Polarines in a thrilling game by a 21 to 9 count. Wampum got the jump at the beginning of the first quarter and when it ended, were on top by a 8 to 2 score. The Polarines made a great comeback and held the "Kids" to a lone free toss while the defense of the Wampum team was just as good, holding the Ellwood "5" to 1 bucket. The score at the half still favored the Kandy Kids by a 9 to 4 margin.

After some great basketball during the third quarter, the Ellwood aggregation had the distinction of being the first team this year to hold the locals scoreless while they themselves counted three points. The score at this point was 9 to 7 still in favor of the "Kids". With the beginning of the last quarter, the Ellwood "5" came out with a do or die expression and after two minutes of basketball, succeeded in knotting the count at 9 all. With only six minutes remaining to play, and the score still tie, the Wampum team uncorked a terrific passing attack which netted them six buckets and the game. This was one of the hardest fought games this year and the fans were on their feet nearly the whole part of the game.

The passing of White featured along with the clever shots executed by Boone and Aiello. Ferrucci and Demark had another wonderful night at the guard posts and stood out brilliantly. The playing of Kennedy was marvelous for the Ellwood quintet while Scheeler proved to be the best shot.

Saturday night the Kandy Kids oppose the Manhattans on the Shelby floor at Ellwood City in a preliminary game to the All Stars of Ellwood City and the Fintex of Pittsburgh.

Duquesne Noses Out Swissvale Hi.

Duquesne Manages To Nose Out Swissvale 28-26 To Remain In Tourney Play

Duquesne High school basketball team like the New Castle high school floor team for the third time in four years is in the W. P. I. A. L. tourney again this year. On Wednesday night Duquesne entered the second round of play by noising out the strong Swissvale passers 28-26 on the Pitt Stadium floor.

Duquesne lead throughout but not by very many points. The game was anybody's until the final whistle blew. Duquesne and New Castle are real floor rivals. Many still remember the contests between these two school-boy teams in the past years. New Castle defeated Duquesne once for the title while Duquesne defeated New Castle once for the crown. These two teams will likely clash this week.

For Duquesne the playing of Beck and Shulte was the best while Tener and Trembath were the best for the Swissvale team. Tonight we have the strong Monessen five opposing Dunbar at the Pitt Stadium. Monessen is one of the favorites to cop the W. P. I. A. L. title.

The summary of last night's game follows:

Stock Market Rallies During First Hour

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, March 6.—Most sections of the stock market rallied in the first hour today from the slump caused by yesterday's closing selling wave. Reduction of the Bank of England's rate to 4 per cent pointed to the probability of a cut in the New York rate to 3 1/2 per cent after the close today, but with money a "drug on the market," no particular enthusiasm was aroused over the prospect of still lower money rates.

United States Steel sold up 1 1/4 at 130 1/4 in the first hour. Westinghouse sold up about 2 1/4 at 191 and Stone and Webster sold above 100 for a 2 point gain. General Electric, Industrial Alcohol, Standard Oil of New Jersey and other favorites responded with slightly higher prices to better buying demand from professionals and outsiders, particularly the former.

The cotton and grain markets were still unsettled, July wheat losing a cent a bushel and cotton off a few points. Business and industrial reports unchanged, but government reports showed employment conditions better than generally represented.

The sugar stocks sold up as the result of the increase of sugar tariffs by yesterday's senate vote. Great Western Sugar advanced 2 1/2 to 34 1/2. American Sugar rose 2 1/2 to 64 1/2, and South Porto Rico Sugar gained 2 1/4 at 29 1/4. Turning into the second hour the market developed a reactionary tone and prices of the favorites were inclined slightly downward. Call money renewed at 4 per cent.

Director

PETE J. IODICE.

Different people have different hobbies. Some there are who paint china ware and others raise terrier dogs. Still others find pleasure in collecting match boxes but Pete Iodice has none of these vices. His pet hobby is the theatre.

In his short but colorful career he has been in numerous amateur theatricals, done some professional work, handled revues, and acquainted himself with the theatre in all its phases.

Pete is in the Jameson Memorial Minstrel show which is being held on March 13th and 14th. Very much in, as you will see when you attend the show. For of course you're going.

His particular job is directing the revue which comes after the minstrel first part. Last year's revue was directed by him also and you remember how good that was. There are other directors of revues in the country also. Flo Ziegfeld, George White, and a few others. They're good too.

STENOGRAPHER WITH U. S. DELEGATION IS KILLED

(International News Service)
LONDON, March 6.—Members of the American delegation to the London naval conference were shocked to learn today of the death of Mrs. Pearl Demaret, one of the stenographers who came here with the delegation.

Mrs. Demaret fell 40 feet to the ground from her room in the Mayfair Hotel early this morning. She was taken to the St. George's hospital, where she died a few hours later from internal injuries.

Miss Hurley Fisk, secretary to Michael J. McDermott, senior press officer of the delegation, who shared Mrs. Demaret's room in the Mayfair was unable to explain Mrs. Demaret's fall.

"I left the bedroom to go to the bathroom," Miss Fisk told International News Service, "and was absent only about 10 minutes. When I returned I found the window open and the room empty. I notified the hotel officials, who found Pearl on the sidewalk unconscious."

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Mrs. Pearl Larkin Demaret, who died in London early today after a fall of six stories from her room in the Hotel Mayfair, was personal stenographer to Secretary of State Stimson in Washington, and went to the naval conference in that capacity.

She came here originally from Salem, O., and entered the State Department in 1925. She was 30 years old and is survived by her husband and five-year-old son, who live here.

"I left the bedroom to go to the bathroom," Miss Fisk told International News Service, "and was absent only about 10 minutes. When I returned I found the window open and the room empty. I notified the hotel officials, who found Pearl on the sidewalk unconscious."

Judge Richard W. Martin, Pittsburgh Common Pleas Jurist Dies Of Pneumonia

WAS PROMINENT IN POLITICS

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Mar. 6.—Messages of sympathy and condolence poured into the home of Judge Richard W. Martin here today where the noted common pleas jurist's desperate battle of two weeks against pneumonia was ended with his death last night. Members of Judge Martin's family were at his bedside when the end came. He was stricken while on the bench three weeks ago. His illness at first diagnosed as influenza, developed into lobar pneumonia.

Judge Martin served successively as assistant district attorney, city solicitor, public service commissioner and judge. He waged a vigorous but unsuccessful campaign for the Republican mayoralty nomination in the September primaries of 1929, being defeated by Mayor Charles H. Kline, incumbent.

Deceased was a member of the Masonic order, the Duquesne club, the University club, and the Allegheny County and State Bar Associations.

Local Man Meets With Accident

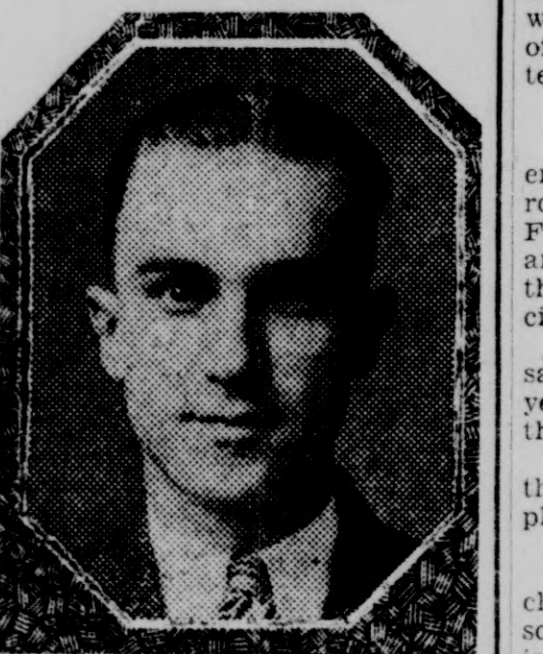

John H. Kocher, Maryland avenue, who is employed as a machinist by the Etna Standard Engineering Works at Ellwood City, met with a painful accident last Saturday, when during some operation he cut his right foot on some steel.

Several stitches were required to close the wound and he will be confined to the house for some time, although the wound is healing nicely.

KONJOLA AGAIN GIVES PROOF OF AMAZING MERIT

Man Who Was Greatly Helped By New Medicine Pays Stirring Tribute To Its Powers.

MR. PARKE C. ACKER

"How I wish I had given Konjola a trial long ago," said Mr. Parke C. Acker, 63 South Franklin street, Lancaster. "For years I was a nervous wreck. I was weak and irritable and my work was a drudgery. I was racked by severe headaches day and night. Sleep was out of the question and my entire system was so run down that I was without appetite, energy or interest in anyone or anything. I became utterly discouraged.

"I was trying to determine what course to pursue in restoring my health when my friends recommended Konjola. What a masterpiece this is. In three weeks I began to feel like another person. My nerves steadied. I slept well at night and every organ in my body seemed to take on new life and vigor. I am in better health and have more energy and enthusiasm for my work today than I have experienced in years. Konjola is surely a super-tonic and medicine."

Konjola is sold by Love & McGown, the druggists, 204 E. Washington St., this city.

Charter Members Of Y. W. Are Honored At Luncheon

The thoughts of the 64 women who were present at the luncheon given at noon, Wednesday, in the club room of the Y. W. C. A., were centered upon the humble beginning of the local Young Women's Christian Association which was later to become the most outstanding prominent women's organization of this section.

Honor is due the charter members of such a splendid organization, and the meeting which took place Wednesday was in recognition of these charter members, who, by patient, tireless work, faith and foresight, were able to develop an organization which is foremost in all movements of civic betterment and religious enterprises.

Organized 23 Years Ago

Twenty three years ago, a group of energetic women met in a small, bare room, over the store then known as Frey's grocery, on the corner of Mill and Washington streets, and formed the Young Women's Christian Association.

The gathering of a portion of these same women in the pretty club room yesterday, brought back memories of the start of the organization.

Dr. Mildred Rogers, chairman of the membership committee, which planned for the luncheon, presided.

Miss Dell Davidson led in prayer. Then, Dr. Rogers called upon each charter member present, to tell of some of her recollections of the various departments and members when the association was in its infancy.

Those memories of 20 years back were vastly interesting. The charter members told of the millinery, dressmaking and gym classes, the voluntary teachers of the classes, the old club rooms, the starting of the library and cafeteria.

They spoke admiringly of the work done by Miss Grace Erhardt, the first general secretary, Miss Cora M. Fry, the first physical director, Miss Rhoda Lowe, of the millinery class, Mrs. J. L. Stratton, who gave the first prayer ever given in the association, Mrs. Elizabeth Royce, who helped in the library work, Miss Amos, who helped in the starting of the cafeteria, Mrs. Margaret Speer Gibson, Nettie McKee and many other workers who laid the foundation for the Young Women's Christian Association of today.

Afternoon Speakers

Speakers of the afternoon were Dr. Mildred Rogers, chairman of membership committee, Mrs. J. L. Stratton, Miss Frances Carey, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. and Mrs. Thomas Phillips.

The talks given by these four women, prominent in Y. W. C. A. work were most interesting. Both told of the work being done by the association, and of the purposes of the association. They commended the members for their splendid cooperation in the various department of the Y. W. C. A. They told of the great credit due the charter members.

Dr. Rogers, in introducing Miss Frances Carey, general secretary, told of the work which Miss Carey has so capably handled, and the importance of a general secretary in the affairs of the Y. W. C. A. work.

After giving a splendid talk, in tribute to the charter members, Miss Frances Carey closed the meeting with prayer.

Those Present

Those present at the luncheon included Miss Frances Carey, Mrs. E. C. Porter, Miss Effie Butz, Miss William Peron, Mrs. F. E. Stutcher, Mrs. Harold L. Black, Mrs. J. L. Stratton, Miss Elizabeth Sterrett, Miss Dell Davidson, Mrs. Daisy Foltz Groffinger, Mrs. Thomas Phillips, Mrs. James George, Miss Pearl Dufford, Miss Grace Timbin, Mrs. A. J. Elliott, Mrs. Joseph Rice, Dr. Mildred Rogers, Mrs. Alice Rogers, Miss Nancy Bechtol, Miss Blanche Bright, Mrs. Stanley Bright, Mrs. Howard Magill, Miss Mary Bigley, Miss Martha Bigley, Mrs. J. F. Rentz, Mrs. C. W. Ingham, Miss Jennie Morgan, Mrs. David Keast, Mrs. John G. Northduff, Mrs. Keith McAfee, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. J. B. Love, Miss Ethel Moore, Mrs. Douglass, Miss Alice Sterling, Miss Dorothy Stewart, Mrs. J. H. Cox, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Miss Emma Moore, Miss Srocynska, Miss Barbanelli, Mrs. J. C. Raney, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Springer, Mrs. Gertrude Lewis, Mrs. Mary Dyson, Mrs. R. Rederick Roberts, Miss Cassandra Aiken, Miss Grace Lowers, Mrs. E. R. Ray, Mrs. A. B. Pankhauser, Mrs. William R. Hanna, Mrs. Vaughan, Mrs. Vlahos and Miss Janet Kissinger.

Allen, Miss Nancy Bechtol, Miss Blanche Bright, Mrs. W. C. Burchfield, Miss Effie Butz, Mrs. George W. Conway, Miss Dell Davidson, Mrs. Pearl Dufford, Mrs. William R. Hanna, Mrs. L. C. Mantz, Mrs. William J. Offutt, Mrs. Carl Paisley, Mrs. James S. Rice, Miss Laura Stevenson, Miss Mary Towell, Mrs. M. E. Vaughn, Mrs. Haney and Mrs. William Sterling.

Local Man Doesn't Need Alarm Clock

Alarm clocks don't mean a thing in the life of A. B. Cartwright of Craig street, because he couldn't hear one if he did have it.

Mr. Cartwright is stone deaf and has been for a good many years, yet he is never late for work. Lacking a sense of hearing, he has been able to concentrate his faculties on arising at a certain hour in the morning and he never fails.

Mr. Cartwright is employed at the Carnegie Steel plant, where he has been one of the most faithful employees of that concern for the last 20 years. When he wants to talk to his friends or fellow employees he must either write out his message or talk by means of the deaf mute alphabet.

His daughter, Elizabeth Cartwright, a student at the George Washington Junior High School can talk the sign language fluently and uses it daily in her conversation with her father, although she can hear like any other normal person.

Discharge Aliens Holding City Jobs

Detroit To Replace 1,689 With Veterans With Families, Out Of Work

DETROIT, March 6.—Preference in replacing the city jobs which are to be vacated by the 1,689 aliens ordered discharged by the Council will be given to war veterans with families who apply at the department of public welfare, the Council voted today.

The matter came up when Dr. Carl E. Buck, acting commissioner of health, told the Council he wanted to keep alien nurses at the contagious hospitals because it will be difficult to replace these with American nurses.

DAY OF PRAYER TO BE OBSERVED

Much interest is being manifested in the world day of prayer which will be observed universally Friday. The indications are that the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church on North Jefferson street will be filled with the women of the city and community of all races, denominations and nationalities.

All women are welcomed to the morning service, which will begin at 10:30 and some splendid speakers have been procured for this meeting. The afternoon session begins at one p. m. and all churches of the city will have a part in the ceremonies.

Happy Woman Tells How She Lost 19 Pounds Of Fat In 27 Days

During October a woman in Montana wrote: "My first bottle of Kruschen Salts lasted almost 4 weeks and during that time I lost 19 pounds of fat—Kruschen is all you claim for it—I feel better than I have for years."

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Be sure and do this every morning for "it's the little daily dose that takes off the fat."—Don't miss a morning. The Kruschen habit means that every particle of poisonous waste matter and harmful acids and gases are expelled from the system.

At the same time the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are toned up and the pure, fresh blood containing Nature's six life-giving salts are carried to every organ, gland, nerve and fibre of the body and this is followed by "that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

If you want to lose fat with speed get an 85c bottle of Kruschen Salts, from Eckerd's or New Castle Inc. or any live druggist anywhere in America with the distinct understanding that you must be satisfied with results or money back.
